Product overview

The Fascetta MARE SICURO is a bronzed metal ribbon band designed to hang on the ribbon of a commemorative cross for public order missions. It is intended for veterans, collectors, and anyone documenting service in maritime security operations.

Definition: A bronzed metal band stamped with a laurel wreath and the name MARE SICURO, meant as a commemorative accessory for naval and air units involved in maritime surveillance off the Libyan coast.

Main features

Simple, durable design that preserves the mission identity while fitting standard commemorative ribbon mounts.

- Material: Bronzed metal for long-lasting appearance and resistance.
- Design: Laurel wreath enclosed by a cartouche with the mission name MARE SICURO.
- Size: Available only in the 37 mm format; actual band measures 5 x 40 mm.
- Use: Made to hang on the ribbon of a commemorative cross for maritime security missions.
- Context: Commemorates participation of naval and air units of the Marina Militare in operations against illegal immigration from the Libyan and sub-Saharan area.
- Availability: Produced in limited quantities; demand is high for this commemorative item.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Attach the fascetta to the ribbon of the commemorative cross using the standard slot or ring for 37 mm bands. It is suitable for display on medals, in shadow boxes, or as a collector’s item.

In most cases, the fascetta is bought by former mission participants, family members, or military collectors wishing to preserve or document service. It also fits retail as part of military surplus and tactical memorabilia collections.

Care and notes

Keep the fascetta in good condition with basic care and note the fixed size and limited stock.

- Wipe gently with a soft, dry cloth to remove fingerprints and dust.
- Avoid prolonged exposure to moisture to reduce the risk of surface changes.
- Do not attempt to alter the inscription or shape; it is sold only in the 37 mm format.
- Limited availability: consider reserving early if you need one for a display or replacement.
