How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use this ribbon for display, uniform replicas, historical collections, or as a commemorative gift. It is not a modern state award but a historically inspired piece for presentation and collecting.

In most cases, select the flat or Elite finish based on the display style you prefer, and pick the rear attachment (clamps or screws) to match your mounting method. For multiple ribbons, use the multi-place mounting option so pieces fit securely on one metal base.

FAQ

Q: What sizes or formats are available?

A: The ribbon is offered in the regular flat format and a slightly domed Elite variant. Choose the finish that best fits your display or uniform style.

Q: How do I select the type of attachment?

A: Use the product dropdown to pick rear clamps or screw fasteners. Select the mounting type that matches your ribbon bar or metal base.

Q: Can I mount several ribbons on a single base?

A: Yes. A multi-place ribbon mounting option is available for two or more ribbons so multiple pieces can be placed on one metal base.

Q: Is this ribbon suitable for civilian and military use?

A: Historically, the award was conferred to both civilian and military personnel. As a product, it is suitable for civilian collectors, reenactors, and military-themed displays, not for conferring official honors.

Q: What materials are used?

A: The ribbon is made from high-quality, durable materials designed to keep its appearance over time. Specific material names are not claimed beyond being long-lasting and suitable for display.

Q: Is the ribbon in stock?

A: Stock is limited and demand is often high. If you need a specific finish or attachment, order soon to secure the correct variant.

Tip: Choose the finish (flat or Elite) and the correct attachment (clamps or screws) before adding to cart; check multi-place mounting if you plan to display several ribbons together and browse related military, tactical, or police memorabilia to complete your presentation.
