Product overview

The Nastrino BSME (Brevetto Sportivo Militare Esercito) is a ribbon awarded to Italian Army personnel who complete a set of military sports tests. It is intended for service members who want to display that qualification on dress or ceremonial uniforms.

Definition: the Nastrino BSME is a blue military ribbon with a laurel motif that recognizes successful completion of specific shooting, swimming, throwing, and running tests. Suitable for military, tactical, and military surplus collectors and duty dress use.

Main features

Designed to reproduce the official appearance, the Nastrino BSME is available in multiple finishes and mounting options to suit personal preference and uniform regulations.

- Color: Blue ribbon symbolizing sporting excellence.
- Design: Includes a laurel (serto) as a symbol of honor.
- Qualification tests: Shooting, swimming, hand-grenade throw, and running.
- Variants: Regular flat format and a slightly domed “Elite” finish.
- Mounting options: Available with clamp or screw attachments for easy fitting.
- Packaging: Options for single or multi-ribbon mounts to keep an ordered, professional display.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear the Nastrino BSME on the left chest during official ceremonies, parades, and formal occasions, following unit dress regulations. In most cases, it is placed next to other service ribbons in the prescribed order.

Choose the mounting style that matches your uniform and how you plan to display other ribbons. For multi-ribbon displays, select a compatible holder and ensure alignment with your unit’s appearance rules.

Care and notes

Handle the ribbon with care to maintain its appearance and to comply with uniform standards.

- Attach using the chosen clamp or screw option; check fit before wearing.
- Store in a dry place and clean gently with a soft cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners.
- Follow your unit’s dress regulations for placement and combinations with other ribbons.
- Limited stock may apply; select the correct variant and mounting type when ordering.

FAQ

Q: Who is eligible to receive the Nastrino BSME?

A: The Nastrino BSME is awarded to Italian Army personnel who have successfully completed the required military sports tests listed by their unit or training authority.

Q: Which tests are required to qualify for this ribbon?

A: Qualification typically includes shooting, swimming, hand-grenade throwing practice, and running. Exact standards and scores are set by the Army training regulations.

Q: How should the ribbon be worn on the uniform?

A: It is worn on the left chest, alongside other ribbons, during official ceremonies and parades. Always follow your unit’s uniform regulations for precise placement and order.

Q: What variants and mounting options are available?

A: The ribbon is available in a regular flat format and a slightly domed “Elite” finish. Mounting options include clamp-style attachments or screws to suit different uniform types.

Q: Can I mount the Nastrino BSME on a multi-ribbon holder?

A: Yes. The ribbon can be fitted to two- or multi-ribbon holders to create a neat, professional display. Choose a compatible holder and mounting option when ordering.

Q: Is this an official or reproduction item?

A: This product is produced to match the official appearance of the Nastrino BSME. For confirmation of official issue or unit-specific rules, check with your chain of command or unit administration.

Tip: Choose the variant and mounting option that match your uniform and display needs; consider ordering a multi-ribbon holder if you wear more than one ribbon to keep a professional, orderly appearance.
