Product overview

The Fregio Truppa Alpini Paracadutisti is the official troop badge for the Alpini Paracadutisti corps, designed for members of the alpine paratrooper units and for collectors of military surplus and tactical gear. It is a black plastic insignia intended for application on the traditional cappello alpino.

Definition: a durable black-plastic troop badge showing the Alpini Paracadutisti emblem, made for uniform and ceremonial use. This badge is suitable for duty display, military surplus collections, and tactical equipment setups.

Main features

Key characteristics that make this insignia suitable for uniform use and display:

- Symbolic design: Eagle in lowered flight clutching a black disc with a central parachute, over a trumpet and two crossed rifles.
- Durable material: Made from resilient black plastic designed for long-lasting appearance.
- Weather resistant: Built to withstand normal outdoor exposure and daily wear.
- Ideal dimensions: 8.5 cm length x 7 cm height, sized for clear visibility on the cappello alpino.
- Easy application: Designed for secure attachment to the alpine hat using standard fixing methods.

How to use / When it’s useful

Attach the badge to the cappello alpino where unit insignia is normally placed. Ensure the hat surface is clean and dry before fitting and use appropriate fixing methods for a stable attachment.

Quick answer: Clean the hat, position the badge, fix it securely, then check stability. In most cases, this badge is used for uniform wear, ceremonial occasions, or as part of a military surplus or tactical gear collection.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the badge looking its best and ensures long service life.

- Clean with a soft cloth and mild soap; avoid strong solvents that can damage the finish.
- Check the fixing method regularly to ensure the badge remains secure during activity.
- Store the badge or the hat indoors when not in use to reduce prolonged UV exposure.
- Use only the appropriate attachment method for your hat to avoid fabric damage.
