Product overview

The Nastrino Guerra 1940-43 with 1 Year of Campaign is an Italian military campaign ribbon for collectors, museums, reenactors and buyers of military surplus, tactical and police memorabilia. It marks active service in wartime operations between 1940 and 1943.

Definition: a campaign ribbon bearing one silver star to indicate one year of active service during the 1940–1943 period. The ribbon is produced in the regulation 37 mm format and offered in flat and slightly domed variants, with optional mounting choices.

Main features

Key attributes and benefits for display and collection:

- Historical meaning: Honors service during operations from 1940 to 1943.
- Service indicator: One silver star denotes one year of campaign service.
- Regulation size: Supplied in the standard 37 mm format to match historical dimensions.
- Variants: Available in flat regulation finish and a slightly domed "Elite" option for a refined look.
- Mounting options: Choose a ribbon holder with clamps or with screws for secure attachment.
- Collector demand: Limited availability and high interest from collectors and military enthusiasts.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use the ribbon for display on a ribbon bar, in a framed collection, or on a multi-ribbon holder for museum or personal exhibits. It suits collectors of military surplus, tactical and police memorabilia.

In most cases, select the regulation 37 mm version for historically accurate presentations and choose the mounting style (clamps or screws) that fits your display or uniform reproduction. The slightly domed variant offers a more polished appearance for presentation use.

Care and notes

Simple care and ordering notes to keep the ribbon in good condition:

- Store in a dry, cool place away from direct sunlight to preserve color and finish.
- Avoid exposure to chemicals, oils or abrasive cleaning that could damage the metal star or ribbon.
- Select the desired mounting option when ordering to ensure the correct fit for your display.
- If used on a uniform reproduction, follow official placement guidelines for accurate presentation.

FAQ

Q: What does the Nastrino Guerra 1940-43 with 1 Year of Campaign represent?

A: It represents active military service in operations between 1940 and 1943. A single silver star indicates one year of campaign service.

Q: Is this ribbon produced to original dimensions?

A: Yes. The ribbon is supplied in the regulation 37 mm format to match standard historical dimensions used for display and collection.

Q: What variants and finishes are available?

A: You can choose the flat regulation format or a slightly domed "Elite" variant for a more elegant look. Both retain the same 37 mm size.

Q: What mounting options can I order?

A: Mounting is optional: choose a ribbon holder with clamps for quick attachment or a holder with screws for a more secure fit.

Q: How can I display the ribbon?

A: Common display options include a multi-ribbon holder, a framed case, or a presentation mount on a metal base suitable for multiple ribbons.

Q: Can I buy and own this ribbon freely?

A: This ribbon is offered as a historical item for collectors. Ownership is generally permitted, but follow any local laws or display rules that apply to military insignia in your area.

Tip: Choose the regulation 37 mm variant for historically accurate displays and pick the mounting option that matches your presentation needs. Consider pairing this ribbon with a compatible multi-ribbon holder and related items for a professional-looking collection.
