Product overview

The Croce Commemorativa Mare Sicuro Ordine Pubblico is a commemorative cross for members of the Marina Militare who took part in public order and security duties during operation "Mare Sicuro." It is intended for service members and collectors of military surplus, tactical and duty memorabilia.

Definition: a bronzed commemorative cross awarded to recognise participation in Mare Sicuro public-order operations. This decoration serves as a wearable honor or display piece for recipients and collectors.

Main features

Well-crafted and symbolic, the cross combines traditional military motifs with personalization options to reflect individual service.

- Bronzed cross with pattee arms, decorated with two olive branches around the central inscription "ORDINE PUBBLICO".
- Reverse side bears a five-pointed star as a mark of merit and recognition.
- Ribbon split evenly between maroon and light blue with three 5 mm tricolour bands (green-white-red) at the center.
- Option to add small clasps (fascette) on the tricolour bands to indicate specific operations participated in.
- Available in two sizes: 37 mm and 20 mm to suit personal preference or placement on dress uniforms.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear the cross on appropriate service or ceremonial dress, or keep it as a display item to document participation in Mare Sicuro operations. It functions as both a formal symbol of service and a collector’s piece for military and police memorabilia.

In most cases, recipients display the cross on dress uniforms or in a medal case; collectors and sellers of military surplus or tactical gear may also acquire it for historical or duty-related collections. Reservation is available through simplified booking procedures; note limited quantities and high demand.

Care and notes

Simple care will keep the cross and ribbon in good condition for display or wear.

- Store in a dry place away from direct sunlight to preserve the ribbon colors.
- Clean the metal gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or strong chemicals.
- Select the correct size (37 mm or 20 mm) based on how you plan to wear or display the cross.
- Clasps (fascette) are optional and should reflect actual operations participated in; availability may vary.

FAQ

Q: Who can receive the Croce Commemorativa Mare Sicuro Ordine Pubblico?

A: The cross is awarded to members of the Marina Militare who actively participated in preserving public order during operation "Mare Sicuro." It recognises operational service.

Q: What sizes are available?

A: The cross is offered in two sizes: 37 mm and 20 mm. Choose the size that best fits your uniform or display preference.

Q: How can I reserve one?

A: Reservation is handled through simplified booking procedures provided by the supplier. Because stock is limited, early reservation is recommended.

Q: What are the ribbon colors and symbols?

A: The ribbon is split evenly between maroon and light blue, with three central 5 mm bands in green-white-red. The cross features olive branches and "ORDINE PUBBLICO" on the front and a five-pointed star on the back.

Q: Can the cross be personalized?

A: Yes. Small clasps (fascette) can be added to the tricolour bands to indicate specific operations the recipient participated in. Availability of specific clasps may vary.

Q: Is this an official military award?

A: The product description reflects the Croce Commemorativa linked to Mare Sicuro service. It is presented as a formal commemorative cross for Marina Militare personnel who served in those operations.

Tip: Choose the 37 mm or 20 mm variant based on how you plan to wear or display the cross, and consider adding relevant clasps for each operation served. Check availability early and browse related military surplus and duty items to complete your collection.
