Product overview

The Fregio Dorato Norvegese Artiglieria Alpina is a gold-embroidered badge intended for military personnel, collectors, and buyers of tactical or duty uniforms. It suits officers, non-commissioned officers and permanent-service volunteers serving with the Norvegese Artiglieria Alpina.

Definition: a machine-embroidered gold-thread badge showing a lowered-flying eagle clutching a regiment-number disc above a trumpet with two crossed rifles, on a green background. Stock is limited; choose the numeral option if you need a specific regiment number.

Main features

High-quality construction and precise detailing make this badge a visible insignia for uniforms, tactical jackets, and military surplus collections.

- Gold-thread embroidery: Machine-stitched with durable gold-coloured thread for long-lasting shine.
- Detailed motif: Eagle in flight, trumpet and crossed rifles with space for an optional regiment numeral.
- Official use: Adopted by officers, NCOs and permanent-service volunteers of the Norvegese Artiglieria Alpina.
- Compact size: 6 cm width x 4 cm height — suitable for placement on uniforms without bulk.
- Personalization: Available with or without a numeral; select the option and enter the regiment number in the product grid.
- Suitable contexts: For military, tactical and duty wear, and for military surplus collectors.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: attach the badge to the uniform in the designated placement area or sew it onto a jacket, cap or field blouse as required. In most cases, permanent-service personnel and ceremonial units use it on dress or duty uniforms.

The badge is useful for identifying unit affiliation and adding authorized insignia to tactical or service clothing. Choose the numeral option if you need the specific regiment number embroidered into the centre disc.

Care and notes

Basic care preserves the embroidery and colour; follow normal garment care for embroidered patches.

- Handle gently to avoid pulling the gold thread.
- If attaching by sewing, use fine, even stitches around the edge.
- Do not bleach; spot clean or dry-clean according to the uniform’s care label.
- Select the correct numeral option at purchase; stock of personalized badges may be limited.
