Product overview

The Anti-Piracy Mission ribbon is a service recognition ribbon issued to Armed Forces personnel, including the Arma dei Carabinieri, who took part in anti-piracy operations abroad. It is intended for military and police members, uniformed duty personnel, and collectors of military surplus or tactical gear.

Definition: The Anti-Piracy Mission ribbon is a 12 mm wide service ribbon, blue with the Italian tricolour at the center, worn or displayed as a sign of participation in international anti-piracy efforts.

Main features

Key features and options that make this ribbon suitable for uniform wear, display, or collection.

- Color: Blue ribbon with the Italian tricolour stripe at the center.
- Width: 12 mm overall width.
- Recipients: Awarded to Armed Forces personnel, including the Arma dei Carabinieri, involved in anti-piracy duties.
- Finishes: Available in flat regulation style or a slightly domed "Elite" variant.
- Attachment options: Rear fastening selectable as single clip or screws.
- Display: Can be mounted on multi-ribbon holders (two or more positions) for orderly presentation.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the ribbon on the uniform according to official dress and placement rules, or display it on a multi-ribbon board for collection and presentation. It is appropriate whenever you need a compact, recognizable symbol of service in maritime security operations.

Quick answer: Wear it on the uniform or mount it on a ribbon bar for display. In most cases, the ribbon recognizes personnel embarked on national or foreign vessels or assigned to command, control, or logistic support posts abroad (not operations in seas adjacent to the Italian peninsula).

Care and notes

Simple care and ordering notes to keep the ribbon in good condition and ensure correct selection.

- Select the preferred rear attachment (clip or screws) when ordering from the product options.
- Store ribbons flat in a dry place to avoid deformation; clean gently with a soft cloth if needed.
- Mount multiple ribbons on a proper holder for an orderly display and correct alignment.
- Respect official uniform regulations when wearing service ribbons.

FAQ

Q: Who can receive the Anti-Piracy Mission ribbon?

A: It is granted to Armed Forces personnel, including the Arma dei Carabinieri, who served in anti-piracy operations abroad. Award criteria follow official service regulations.

Q: What customization options are available?

A: You can choose the ribbon style (flat regulation or slightly domed Elite) and the rear attachment (single clip or screws) at purchase.

Q: Can I display several ribbons together?

A: Yes. The ribbon can be mounted on multi-position ribbon holders (two or more) to display multiple awards neatly.

Q: What is the ribbon width?

A: The ribbon has a total width of 12 mm, matching standard service ribbon dimensions for uniform and display use.

Q: Are these ribbons always in stock?

A: Stock can be limited. Availability depends on demand and production; select your options at checkout to secure the variant you need.

Q: Which operations qualify for this ribbon?

A: It recognizes personnel involved in operations to protect freedom of navigation in threat-prone maritime regions, typically while embarked on national or foreign vessels or assigned to overseas command, control, or logistic support roles.

Tip: Choose the ribbon finish and rear attachment that match your uniform or display needs, and consider a multi-ribbon holder if you plan to show more than one service ribbon. Browse related tactical and military surplus items to complete your presentation or collection.
