How to use / When it’s useful

Use the ribbon for formal recognition ceremonies, presentation to staff or volunteers, uniform decoration, or mounting on a multi-ribbon card for display. It works well for public institutions, emergency services, military and police units that want a visible sign of gratitude.

Quick answer: Wear on the uniform or attach to a presentation card using the chosen rear fastener.
In most cases, choose the flat format for standard wear and the Elite (slightly domed) format for a more prominent display when mounted on a ribbon board or presentation card.
