Italian Military Valor Medal Savoy Gold

Product price:

€8.50 tax included

Product codes:

Reference: Art. 2982
EAN13: 0658606579590
UPC: 658606579590

Product features:

Product short description:

The Medaglia Valore Militare Savoia Oro is a gold military valor medal that honors exceptional bravery. It is suitable for collectors, museums and history enthusiasts seeking a tangible tribute to service and sacrifice.

- Type: Military valor medal - Medaglia Valore Militare Savoia Oro model.
- Material: Crafted in gold with artisanal workmanship.
- Design: Elegant, traditional motif reflecting honor and dedication.
- Use: Display piece, collector's item or museum exhibit.
- Audience: Collectors and enthusiasts of military history.

Product description:

Product overview

The Medaglia Valore Militare Savoia Oro is a historic gold military medal created to honor officers and soldiers for acts of exceptional valor. It is for collectors, museums, and those interested in military history or military surplus and tactical memorabilia.

Definition: the Medaglia Valore Militare Savoia Oro (M.O.V.M.) is a gold medal established by King Vittorio Amedeo III of Savoy on 21 May 1793 to recognize extraordinary wartime bravery.

Main features

This medal combines historical significance with refined design and is supplied on a 37 mm blue ribbon suitable for display or collection.

- Historic origin: Instituted 21 May 1793 by King Vittorio Amedeo III of Savoy.
- Material: Gold construction as described in the original specification.
- Ribbon size: Mounted on a 37 mm wide blue ribbon (single available size).
- Obverse design: Sabaudian shield with laurel branches, royal crown and the inscription «al valor militare».
- Reverse details: Two laurel branches framing the recipient’s name, place and date of the action.
- Collectors’ value: A historical piece valued for provenance and craftsmanship.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this medal for museum displays, private collections, historical reenactments, or as a documented historical item in an archive. It is primarily a display and commemorative piece rather than wearable modern duty gear.

Quick answer: display it on a medal board, in a shadow box, or store it with other military surplus and memorabilia. In most cases: collectors and institutions present it alongside citation details to preserve the story behind the award.

Care and notes

Handle the medal carefully and store it in a dry, stable environment to protect the metal and ribbon. Limited availability may affect delivery time.

- Store in a padded case or archival box to avoid scratches.
- Avoid harsh chemicals or abrasive cleaners on the gold finish.
- Keep the ribbon away from moisture and direct sunlight to prevent fading.
- Note: only the standard 37 mm format is available; no customization offered.
- Availability is limited—purchase promptly if you need this specific piece.

FAQ

Q: What size is the medal?

A: The medal is available only in the 37 mm format and is mounted on a 37 mm wide blue ribbon.

Q: What material is the Medaglia Valore Militare Savoia Oro made of?

A: The medal is described as being made in gold, matching the historic M.O.V.M. specification.

Q: Who established this medal and when?

A: It was instituted by King Vittorio Amedeo III of Savoy on 21 May 1793 to reward acts of elevated military valor.

Q: What images and inscriptions appear on the medal?

A: The obverse shows the Sabaudian shield with laurel branches, the royal crown and the inscription «al valor militare». The reverse shows two laurel branches framing the recipient’s name, place and date.

Q: Can the medal be personalized or produced in other sizes?

A: No, this item is offered only in the standard 37 mm design and is not customizable.

Q: Is this medal suitable for display in a museum or for reenactments?

A: Yes. It is suitable for museum exhibits, collectors’ displays, and documented historical presentations, but it is primarily a collectible rather than contemporary duty equipment.

Tip: Choose the 37 mm variant if you need the historically accurate format, and browse related medals, military surplus items, and tactical or duty collectibles to complete your display or collection.

Product attributes:

Product gallery: