Product overview

The Soggolo Capitano Carabinieri is a rank chinstrap designed for officers of the Arma dei Carabinieri. It is intended for use on the rigid peaked cap to show the Captain rank with formal, duty, and ceremonial uniforms.

Definition: a soggolo is a decorative strap placed above the visor of a peaked cap. This item is reserved for serving Carabinieri personnel and qualified collectors under Italian law.

Main features

Carefully made to match the appearance and placement required for the Captain rank.

- Ribbon: silver-coloured fabric tape, 11 mm high.
- Rank marks: three silver rank galloons edged in black on both sides.
- Placement: designed to sit at temple height above the cap visor.
- Fixing: includes two silver-coloured metal buttons for secure attachment.
- Materials: fabric and metal selected for durability and correct appearance for duty and ceremonial use.

How to use / When it’s useful

Apply the soggolo above the visor of the rigid peaked cap and fasten it with the two supplied metal buttons at the temples. It is used for formal, duty, and ceremonial wear where the Captain rank must be displayed.

Quick answer: it is for serving officers of the Arma dei Carabinieri. In most cases, purchase requires identity or service documentation and verification before the order is completed.

Care and notes

Simple care and compliance notes to keep the soggolo serviceable and legally held.
