Product overview

The Medaglia di Benemerenza 3^a Classe della Croce Rossa Italiana is a third-class merit medal awarded to recognize notable dedication in humanitarian service with the Croce Rossa Italiana. It is intended for recipients, collectors, and institutions that display or honor service and commitment to Red Cross ideals.

Definition: this is a 22 mm diameter gold-toned medal that symbolizes service, charity and solidarity on behalf of the Italian Red Cross. Suitable for collectors of military surplus, tactical or duty and police memorabilia seeking authentic Red Cross decorations.

Main features

Clear, durable construction and classic symbolism make this medal a meaningful recognition piece or collector's item.

- Material: gold-toned metal, diameter 22 mm.
- Front: Greek cross with a female figure holding a lit lamp in her left hand.
- Motto: "OMNIA VINCIT CARITAS" appears left of the cross in Roman lapidary characters.
- Reverse: "CROCE ROSSA ITALIANA" above a relief cross, surrounded by laurel branches.
- Grade marking: "III classe" shown in relief with Roman lapidary lettering.
- Ribbon: white, 37 mm wide with a central red band 10 mm wide; metal bracket attachment for fastening.

How to use / When it's useful

Quick answer: wear it for formal recognition ceremonies or add it to a display of service awards and historical collections. The medal's bracket and ribbon make it suitable for mounting on dress uniforms or presentation cases.

In most cases, organizations present this medal to acknowledge sustained, efficient conduct and notable commitment to humanitarian duties. It is also useful for museums, collectors of military surplus and tactical/police memorabilia who document humanitarian awards.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the medal presentable and protects its finish; follow organization rules before wearing on official uniforms.

- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners and chemicals.
- Store in a dry, temperature-stable place to prevent tarnish or damage.
- Handle by the edges to preserve surface detail and lettering.
- Check relevant organizational or legal requirements before wearing the medal on uniforms.
