Product overview

It is designed for service members, veterans, uniformed personnel, and collectors of military surplus or tactical/duty gear.

Definition: this is the merit ribbon that represents service and dedication at the Air Force General

Staff. The ribbon is suitable for uniform wear where authorized and for display on multi-ribbon mounts or in collections.

Main features

Clear, recognisable design and multiple purchase options make this ribbon a practical choice for authorized wear or display.

- Distinctive blue ribbon symbolizing the air domain.
- Gold-tone metal emblem with two open wings crossed by an upward-pointing arrow, representing speed, precision and aspiration.
- Two format options: regulation flat and slightly domed "Elite" variant for a three-dimensional look.
- Rear single attachment available with clamp (morsetto) or screw (vite) fastening.
- Compatible with metal multi-ribbon mounts for orderly presentation.
- Offered by Tutto Militare, a supplier of military surplus and duty gear.

How to use / When it’s useful

Choose the regulation flat format if you need conformity with standard uniform appearance; choose the slightly domed Elite variant for a refined display or collector presentation. Select the clamp or screw attachment based on the thickness and type of garment or mount you will use.

Quick answer: choose the flat format for official-looking wear and the Elite for a more refined visual impact.
In most cases, choose a clamp for thin fabrics and a screw attachment for heavier garments or fixed display mounts.

Care and notes

Routine care keeps the ribbon and metal emblem looking correct and preserves its value for display or uniform use.

- Gently wipe the metal emblem with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or strong chemicals.
- Keep the ribbon dry and store flat or on a multi-ribbon mount to prevent creasing.
- Secure the chosen attachment properly to avoid damage to the ribbon or garment.
- Note: wearing official insignia is subject to military regulations—purchase does not replace formal authorization to wear awards.
