Product overview

The Medaglia Commemorativa Alluvione Baviera Fluthelfer 2013 is a commemorative medal for rescuers, volunteers and professionals who assisted during the 2013 Bavaria floods. It is intended for survivors, participants, collectors of military surplus and duty/police memorabilia, and anyone who wants to honor that service.

Definition: a 37 mm commemorative medal that recognizes service and solidarity shown during the 2013 Bavarian flood response. This collectible also appeals to tactical and military surplus collectors and those who display service awards.

Main features

Simple, symbolic design that links the award to Bavaria and the emergency response effort.

- Shape: rectangular medal, visually balanced for wear or display.
- Colors: Bavarian white and blue enamel, reflecting regional identity.
- Inscription: cartouche with "FLUTHELFER" in gold-tone lettering on a blue background.
- Top detail: crown motif symbolizing official recognition and institutional support.
- Ribbon: light-blue ribbon with alternating vertical blue and white stripes, ceremonial style.
- Size: 37 mm standard diameter for uniform wear or collection display.
- Edition: produced in a limited run, sought after by collectors of commemorative and military surplus items.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it on formal uniforms for ceremonies or keep it as a display or collector’s piece. The medal suits veterans, emergency responders, and collectors who value historical service awards.

In most cases, the medal is used for ceremonial wear, display in a collection case, or as a tangible way to honor personal or family service during the 2013 Bavaria floods. It complements other duty, police, or tactical memorabilia in a collection.

Care and notes

Basic care preserves the finish and value; treat the medal as a commemorative collectible rather than everyday gear.

- Handle by the edges and avoid touching enamel or gilded lettering to reduce wear.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive products and harsh chemicals.
- Store in a dry place away from direct sunlight and extreme humidity to prevent tarnish.
- Limited edition: consider secure display or archival storage to maintain condition and value.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase the Medaglia Fluthelfer 2013?

A: Anyone may purchase it—collectors, family members of responders, or those who wish to commemorate service during the 2013 Bavaria floods.

Q: What size is the medal?

A: The medal is available in a single standard size of 37 mm, suitable for wearing on a uniform or for display.

Q: What materials is the medal made from?

A: The medal is produced using high-quality materials and enamel finishes intended for long-lasting appearance; contact the seller for specific composition details if required.

Q: Is this item a collectors' piece?

A: Yes. Its limited edition status and historical significance make it desirable for collectors of military surplus and commemorative items.

Q: How long does shipping take?

A: Shipping times vary by destination; typically the seller dispatches orders quickly—often within 24 hours—though delivery depends on your location and carrier.

Q: How should the medal be worn or displayed?

A: Wear it on the left chest during formal ceremonies or mount it in a display case or frame with other duty, police, or military memorabilia for preservation and presentation.

Tip: Choose the correct display or mounting option for the 37 mm size and consider browsing related commemorative and military surplus items to build a cohesive collection or to pair the medal with suitable display accessories.
