Product overview

The Travette Gala Sottufficiali Battaglione Logistico Alpini are a pair of ceremonial rank straps designed for non-commissioned officers of the Battaglione Logistico Alpini in the Italian Army.

They are intended for use on gala and formal duty uniforms by serving Army personnel.

Definition: a ceremonial pair of embroidered shoulder straps (travette) identifying rank and the logistics role within the Alpini corps. Suitable for military, tactical and duty uniform use and for collectors within authorized services.

Main features

These travette combine symbolic embroidery and durable construction to meet the appearance requirements of formal uniform wear.

- Gold canutiglia embroidery: finely worked gold braid for a polished, formal look.
- Distinctive emblem: an eagle in flight clutching a winged gear wheel, symbolizing the Alpini and logistic service.
- Role identification: gold-and-black streaked frame denotes the non-commissioned officer (Sottufficiali) role.
- Reserved product: sale limited to Army personnel to preserve authenticity and protocol.
- Durable materials: crafted to retain appearance with proper handling and storage.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use these travette as part of the gala (formal) uniform for parades, official ceremonies, inspections and other formal military events. They attach to the uniform where rank travette are normally worn for gala dress.

Quick answer: wear them on gala uniform occasions to display rank and the logistic battalion emblem. In most cases, these are ordered and worn only by authorized Army personnel and require verification before purchase.

Care and notes

Handle and store the travette with care to preserve the gold braid and embroidered details; follow the sale and verification requirements below.

- Keep flat or stored in a protective case to avoid crushing the embroidery.
- Avoid prolonged exposure to moisture or corrosive substances; professional cleaning is recommended for delicate metal braid.
- Sale is subject to verification: you must provide a copy of your service ID or attestazione di servizio, or specify the command address for delivery.
- Availability is limited and restricted to Army personnel; orders are verified before purchase privileges are granted.
