How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use this medal as a commemorative display item, for formal recognition, or as part of a collection of service and duty memorabilia. It commemorates service during the Covid-19 emergency and is suited to display in a frame, shadow box, or medal case.

In most cases, recipients keep the medal as a personal memento or present it at ceremonies where authorized. If you are purchasing on behalf of an honoree, confirm the intended use and any organizational rules about wearing or displaying medals.

Care and notes

Basic care and important notes to preserve the medal’s condition and meaning:

- Store in a cool, dry place away from direct sunlight to protect bronze and ribbon colors.
- Clean bronze gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or strong chemicals that can damage the finish.
- Keep the ribbon dry and avoid machine washing; spot-clean fabric gently if needed.

- Possession of a commercially purchased medal does not replace any formal award procedures; official award status depends on Croce Rossa Italiana protocols.

FAQ

Q: Who is eligible to receive the "Il Tempo della Gentilezza" medal?

A: The medal recognizes Croce Rossa Italiana personnel and external individuals or organizations who supported CRI activities during the Covid-19 emergency. Eligibility typically includes at least 15 days of service or equivalent contributions.

Q: What are the medal’s dimensions and material?

A: The medal is made of bronze and measures 35 mm in diameter; the reverse Greek cross is 2 cm across and the ribbon is 37 mm wide.

Q: What does the medal’s design represent?

A: The obverse shows a right arm holding a lily, symbolizing purity and noble intent, with the inscription "IL TEMPO DELLA GENTILEZZA" and references to "EMERGENZA" and "COVID-19". The reverse highlights the Croce Rossa Italiana emblem and name.

Q: What is the meaning of the ribbon’s yellow/black stripes?

A: The ribbon uses Croce Rossa colors (white and red). The alternating yellow and black center stripes reference maritime signal language used to indicate an epidemic aboard a ship, linking the ribbon to the public-health context.

Q: How can I obtain the medal?

A: Add the medal to your cart on this product page to purchase a commemorative piece. If you seek an official award from Croce Rossa Italiana, contact the local CRI office for formal award procedures.

Q: Is this medal an official Croce Rossa recognition?

A: Yes, the medal is presented as a recognition associated with Croce Rossa Italiana for service during the Covid-19 emergency. Note that official awarding and records are handled by CRI; commercially sold commemorative pieces may be for display or personal collections.

Tip: Choose the correct variant or size when ordering and consider pairing this medal with a display case or other commemorative medals. Browse related service and duty memorabilia to create a respectful display or collection.
