Product overview

The Distintivo Corso Superiore Formazione Avanzata Ufficiali Aeronautica is a silvered metal badge for serving officers of the Aeronautica Militare. It is a military badge intended for duty wear and identification by qualified personnel.

Definition: a 25 mm x 27 mm silvered metal insignia showing a Pegasus above a globe with meridians and parallels, plus a lower shield bearing the blue-enamelled monogram "R.I.". This tactical-style insignia blends symbolic design with a compact size suitable for uniform use.

Main features

Clean, durable design and official symbolism make this insignia suitable for officers who completed advanced training. It fits duty and ceremonial uniforms and appeals to collectors and military surplus buyers when eligible.

- Material: Silvered metal for long-lasting wear and resistance.
- Design: Pegasus over a globe with meridians and parallels; shield with blue-enamelled "R.I." monogram.
- Size: 25 mm width × 27 mm height — discreet and proportional for uniforms.
- Intended users: Reserved for serving officers of the Aeronautica Militare.
- Access control: Purchase requires verification of service status to ensure eligibility.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it on the uniform or keep it as an emblem of completed advanced officer training. It is designed for formal and duty use by eligible personnel.

In most cases, the badge is attached to the uniform where insignia are normally placed; it can also be kept with other military surplus items or in a collection. To buy, you must provide proof of current service through the site's contact area or list your barracks as the delivery address during registration for verification.

Care and notes

Basic care preserves the badge’s finish and enamel. Follow these practical notes and respect the eligibility rules below.

- Wipe with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or prolonged exposure to moisture.
- Store in a dry place, separate from sharp objects to prevent scratches.
- Sale is restricted: you must send a copy of your service ID or service certificate for verification.
- The delivery address can be the barracks; our staff will verify the address before allowing purchase.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase this badge?

A: Only personnel currently serving in the Aeronautica Militare are eligible to purchase this badge. Verification of service is required before the sale is approved.

Q: What are the badge dimensions?

A: The badge measures 25 mm in width and 27 mm in height. These compact dimensions make it suitable for uniform placement.

Q: What material is the badge made from?

A: The badge is made of silvered metal with a blue-enamelled "R.I." monogram on the shield. The materials are chosen for durability and a formal appearance.

Q: How do I prove my eligibility to buy?

A: Send a copy of your service ID or a service certificate via the website’s contact area, or enter your barracks as the delivery address during registration. Staff will verify the information before enabling purchase.

Q: Can the badge be shipped to a civilian address?

A: Shipping to a civilian address may be restricted; listing the barracks as the delivery address during registration is an accepted option and will be verified by our staff.

Q: Is this product suitable for collectors?

A: Collectors may be interested, but purchase is limited to serving Aeronautica Militare personnel. The badge’s design and size also make it suitable for display within personal military surplus collections when eligibility is met.

Tip: Choose the correct delivery option during registration and have your service ID ready for verification. Browse related military insignia and tactical items to find matching badges and uniform accessories that fit your duty or collection needs.
