Product overview

The Nastrino Grande Ufficiale dell'Ordine dei Santi Maurizio e Lazzaro is a historic honor ribbon for collectors, uniformed personnel, museums, and anyone interested in military surplus, tactical or duty memorabilia. It represents the ribbon associated with the rank of Grande Ufficiale in the Order of Saints Maurice and Lazarus.

Definition: this item is the 37 mm ribbon (nastrino) used to denote the Grande Ufficiale grade of the Order of Saints Maurice and Lazarus. It is suitable for display, collection, or as part of a period uniform or ceremonial set.

Main features

Well-made and available in the standard regulation size, this ribbon is offered in two visual variants and can be ordered with an optional ribbon bar holder.

- Regulation size: 37 mm standard format.
- Elite variant: slightly domed (bombata) version for a different finish.
- Optional portanastrino: ribbon bar/holder can be selected from the product options.
- Historic provenance: associated with the dynastic Order of Saints Maurice and Lazarus; awarded historically for long or notable civil and military service.
- Limited availability: produced in restricted quantities, appealing to collectors of military, tactical, or police memorabilia.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use this nastrino for display, collection, uniform restoration, or ceremonial purposes where accurate period insignia are required. It complements military surplus, tactical gear displays, and duty or police uniform collections.

In most cases, the ribbon is purchased by collectors, reenactors, museums, or individuals restoring historical uniforms. Note that the Italian Republic ceased official conferment in 1951; the dynastic awarding continues independently through Casa Savoia.

Care and notes

Handle and store the ribbon like other historic or textile insignia to preserve its appearance and condition.

- Store flat or on a suitable ribbon bar to avoid creasing.
- Keep away from moisture, direct sunlight, and heat to prevent fading.
- Light surface cleaning only; avoid aggressive chemicals or machine washing.
- Note: the Order's official conferment by the Italian Republic ended in 1951; later awards are dynastic by Casa Savoia.

FAQ

Q: What size is the ribbon?

A: The ribbon is available in the regulation 37 mm format, which matches official dimensions for this nastrino.

Q: Are there different finishes or variants?

A: Yes, you can choose the standard flat ribbon or a slightly domed "Elite" variant for a different look.

Q: Can I buy the ribbon with a portanastrino (ribbon bar)?

A: Yes, an optional portanastrino can be selected in the product options when ordering.

Q: Who originally received this honor ribbon?

A: Historically it was awarded to state officials and private citizens for long or notable civil and military service, and for merits in arts, industry, charity, education, and humanitarian work.

Q: Is this still an official state award today?

A: Official conferment by the Italian Republic ended on 3 March 1951. The Order continues as a dynastic honor granted independently by Casa Savoia.

Q: Is this suited for military or police collections?

A: Yes, it is suitable for collectors of military surplus, tactical gear, duty and police memorabilia, as well as museum displays and uniform restorations.

Tip: Choose the variant and the optional portanastrino that best fit your display or uniform needs, and consider browsing related historical ribbons and insignia to complete a period-accurate set.
