Product description:

Product overview

The Fascetta Islanda is a bronzed metal ribbon clasp made for service recognition, intended for collectors, military personnel, and anyone documenting participation in NATO operations. It fits the 37 mm ribbon of the Cross for International Security and is suitable for tactical, military surplus, and police display use.

Definition: The Fascetta Islanda is a bronzed metal band engraved with "Islanda" that attaches to a 37 mm ribbon to mark service in the NATO Air Policing mission in Iceland, active since 1 May 2013.

Main features

Simple, durable design that matches regulation ribbon widths and highlights mission service.

- Material: Bronzed metal for lasting appearance and strength.
- Engraving: "Islanda" clearly marked on the band to indicate the Iceland mission.
- Size fit: Designed to attach to a 37 mm ribbon (Cross for International Security).
- Practical use: Easy to add to dress ribbons, display mounts, or collector items.
- Collectible: Limited availability makes it suitable for collectors and historical displays.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Slide the Fascetta Islanda onto a standard 37 mm ribbon of the Cross for International Security so the engraving sits visible on the ribbon face. It is primarily used as a recognition device for personnel who served in the NATO Air Policing mission in Iceland.

In most cases, it is applied to dress ribbons, medal displays, or collector mounts to show service affiliation. Use it when assembling service ribbons for formal wear, presentations, or archival collections.

Care and notes

Basic care maintains the finish and avoids damage; handle the band gently during fitting and storage.

- Keep dry and store in a padded box to prevent scratches.
- Avoid strong chemical cleaners; use a soft cloth for light cleaning.
- Check fit before fastening—designed specifically for 37 mm ribbons.
- Limited availability: stock may be low, so orders are fulfilled while supplies last.

FAQ

Q: What material is the Fascetta Islanda made of?

A: The band is made of bronzed metal, chosen for a durable finish and resistance to everyday wear.

Q: How do I apply the Fascetta Islanda?

A: Slide the band onto the 37 mm ribbon of the Cross for International Security so the "Islanda" engraving faces outward. Fit should be confirmed before final dress or display.

Q: What does the "Islanda" engraving signify?

A: The engraving denotes the NATO Air Policing mission in Iceland, an operation in which Forze Armate Nazionali have participated since 1 May 2013.

Q: Is this product a limited item?

A: Yes. The Fascetta Islanda is produced in limited quantities and is often sought by collectors and personnel documenting service.

Q: Who is this band intended for?

A: It is suitable for veterans, active service members, collectors of military surplus, and those assembling official or commemorative ribbon displays.

Q: Can I use this band with other ribbon widths?

A: The Fascetta Islanda is designed specifically for 37 mm ribbons; it may not fit correctly on wider or narrower ribbons.

Tip: Choose the correct ribbon width (37 mm) before ordering and consider browsing related tactical, military surplus, and police ribbon accessories to complete your display.
