How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: This medal serves as a formal commemorative award for eligible personnel and as a collectible for those interested in military and humanitarian service items. It is suitable for wear on appropriate uniforms or for display in a collection.

In most cases, recipients keep the medal as a personal memento of service, while collectors value it for its historical and symbolic significance. Use it for presentation, display, or preservation in a medal case.

Care and notes

Basic care and important notes for handling and storing the medal.

- Store in a dry, padded case to prevent scratches and tarnish.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or polishing that could remove the silver tone.
- Handle by the edges to preserve the engraved details and ribbon condition.
- Note: the medal is supplied in the 37 mm ribbon format only; availability is limited.
