Product overview

The Rosetta Seta Benemerenza Ordine Costantiniano San Giorgio is a silk rosette badge intended for members who have been formally awarded the honor by the Ordine Costantiniano di San Giorgio. It is designed for wear on formal military or ceremonial uniforms and as a keepsake for decorated personnel.

Definition: a 1.3 cm silk rosette badge bearing the Order's cross and traditional Christian symbols. This small badge signals official recognition and military distinction.

Main features

Key visual and material details of the rosette.

- Round blue silk badge, diameter 1.3 cm.
- Central motif reproduces the Ordine Costantiniano di San Giorgio’s fleur-de-lis (Greek-form) cross.
- Letters I.H.S.V. on the cross ends — "In Hoc Signo Vinces" (With this sign you will conquer).
- Christian symbols: central XP christogram plus Alpha and Omega on the cross arms.
- Available in two metal finishes: bronze and silver (selectable via the product menu).
- Compact, lightweight design suitable for uniform wear, display, or collection.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear the rosette on formal uniforms, dress coats, or place it with other decorations in a display case. It is appropriate for ceremonies, official receptions, and personal presentation of honours.

In most cases, the rosette is purchased and worn only by those officially conferred with the honour by the Ordine Costantiniano di San Giorgio. It also serves as a respectful collector’s piece for military history and ceremonial memorabilia, including tactical and military surplus collections or duty and police ceremonial dress.

Care and notes

Basic care tips to keep the silk rosette in good condition.

- Store flat in a dry, cool place away from direct sunlight to protect silk and colors.
- Do not machine wash; spot clean gently with a soft cloth and mild soap if necessary.
- Avoid strong chemicals, solvents, or abrasive cleaning that could damage the silk or metal finish.
- Available only to those who have been awarded the honour; availability is limited and demand may be high.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase the Rosetta Seta Benemerenza Ordine Costantiniano San Giorgio?

A: Purchase is intended for individuals who have been formally conferred the honour by the Ordine Costantiniano di San Giorgio. Orders may be checked for eligibility where required.

Q: What are the exact dimensions of the rosette?

A: The rosette has a diameter of 1.3 cm. It is a small, discreet badge designed for formal wear and display.

Q: Which variants are available?

A: The rosette is offered in two finishes: bronze and silver. You can select the preferred finish from the product menu on the page.

Q: What does I.H.S.V. stand for on the rosette?

A: I.H.S.V. stands for the Latin phrase "In Hoc Signo Vinces," commonly translated as "With this sign you will conquer," a traditional motto linked to the Order’s heritage.

Q: What are the Christian symbols on the rosette?

A: The center shows the XP christogram, and the arms of the cross include the Greek letters Alpha and Omega, symbolizing beginning and end in Christian iconography.

Q: Is the rosette suitable for everyday use?

A: The rosette is designed for formal and ceremonial use rather than daily wear. Handle and store it carefully to preserve silk and metal details.

Tip: Choose the bronze or silver finish based on your uniform regulations or personal preference, and consider viewing related ceremonial insignia or display cases to complete your set.
