Product overview

The Medaglia Adunata di Udine 2023 is a commemorative bronzed-metal pin for attendees, collectors and Alpini enthusiasts who want a wearable keepsake from the 2023 Adunata in Udine.

It suits collectors, military surplus shoppers, tactical-gear fans and duty or police memorabilia collectors.

Definition: a round, pin-back commemorative medal issued for the Adunata degli Alpini held in Udine, May 11–14, 2023.

Main features

Compact, detailed and built to display the event's symbols clearly.

- Material: bronzed, burnished metal for a durable finish.
- Attachment: pin-back fitting for easy wear on clothing or display boards.
- Design: raised 2023 merged with a red tassel and the Alpini hat feather; digits incorporate the TM logotype.
- Alpine symbols: inverted V enamelled green (symbol of the hill and Alpini), profile of an eagle, and semicircular "ADUNATA DI UDINE" inscription with event dates.
- Size: 35 mm diameter, 3 mm thickness — visible but comfortable to wear.

How to use / When it's useful

Wear the medal on jackets, caps or ceremonial uniforms, or add it to a display case or collection of military surplus and tactical memorabilia. It works well as a memento after attending the Adunata or as a gift for Alpini supporters and collectors.

Quick answer: Use the pin to attach the medal securely to clothing or a display backing.
In most cases, collectors store it in a dry case or shadowbox to preserve the finish and detail.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the medal looking its best and preserves the enamel and bronze finish.

- Avoid abrasive cleaners; wipe gently with a soft, dry cloth.
- Store in a dry place to prevent tarnishing or moisture damage.
- Ensure the pin is fastened when worn to prevent loss.
- Limited availability: purchase soon if you want to add it to a collection.
