Product overview

The 8th Alpini Regiment Enamelled Metal Badge is a finely detailed reproduction of the regimental emblem for collectors, veterans, and military enthusiasts. Definition: this is an enameled metal badge that represents the history and symbols of the 8° Reggimento Alpini.

Ideal for display, uniform wear, or as part of a military surplus collection, the badge appeals to those interested in Alpine troops, tactical memorabilia, and duty or police insignia. It combines historical symbolism with wearable quality.

Main features

Clear, faithful design and durable production make this badge a practical collectible or uniform accessory.

- Material: high-quality enameled metal build, weather-resistant and long-lasting.
- Iconic elements: central ice axe (piccozza) and the regimental number 8.
- Heraldry: shields for Feltre, Tolmezzo, Cividale and L’Aquila included in the design.
- Motto: features the regimental motto "O là ... o Rompi".
- Four stars: symbolize the regiment’s four gold medals linked to the Greece and Russia campaigns and the L’Aquila battalion.
- Size: 2.4 x 3.5 cm (W x H), compact and highly detailed.
- Use: suitable for collectors, display, or wearing on uniforms and tactical gear.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it on uniforms, attach it to a jacket or display it in a collection. The badge works well as a visible symbol of service or as a historical keepsake.

In most cases, collectors mount it in a display case or attach it to a ceremonial or duty uniform. It is also useful for anyone restoring or expanding a military surplus or tactical gear collection where accurate regimental insignia is required.

Care and notes

Keep the badge clean and stored properly to preserve enamel and metal finish.

- Store in a dry place away from prolonged humidity.
- Clean with a soft cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners that can damage enamel.
- The badge is sold in its official-looking configuration and is not customizable.
- Use common sense when wearing on official uniforms—verify local dress regulations if needed.

FAQ

Q: What material is the badge made from?

A: The badge is made of enameled metal designed for durability and resistance to normal wear. It is suitable for display and regular use.

Q: What do the four stars on the badge mean?

A: The four stars represent the regiment’s four gold medals associated with the campaigns in Greece and Russia and the heritage of the L’Aquila battalion.

Q: Can the badge be personalized?

A: No. The badge is offered in its fixed, historically accurate configuration to preserve the emblem’s integrity.

Q: How should I store and clean the badge?

A: Store in a dry, temperature-stable place and clean with a soft, dry or slightly damp cloth. Avoid abrasive products that could harm the enamel.

Q: Is this an official government-issued badge?

A: The badge is presented as a faithful representation of the 8° Reggimento Alpini emblem. For any official use or legal recognition, check with the relevant military authorities.

Q: How long does shipping usually take?

A: Orders are typically processed quickly; shipping is generally arranged within 24 working hours from order confirmation. Exact delivery times depend on the chosen shipping method and destination.
