Product overview

The Nastrino Grande Ufficiale Corona Italia fino al 1946 is a historic ribbon for collectors, museums, reenactors and sellers of military surplus, tactical and duty memorabilia. It represents the second class of the Order of the Crown of Italy and is aimed at anyone preserving or displaying Italian orders and decorations.

Definition: a nastrino is a miniature ribbon that represents a specific class of an order or medal. This version features two royal crowns and follows the traditional design used before 1946, making it suitable for display, restoration or period uniforms.

Main features

Key features at a glance:

- Historic design: Includes the application of two small royal crowns, characteristic of the Grande Ufficiale class.
- Regulation formats: Available in the flat regulatory style and a slightly convex "Elite" variant for a refined appearance.
- Quality materials: Manufactured with durable materials to maintain shape and colour over time.
- Accessory options: Can be purchased with a ribbon bar (portanastrino) selectable from the product options.
- Standard size: Supplied only in the 37 mm format, conforming to the traditional measurement.
- Limited availability: Offered in small quantities, sought after by collectors and history enthusiasts.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use this nastrino for display, restoration, or as part of a uniform reproduction where historical accuracy matters. It matches the official 37 mm dimension, so it integrates well with period ribbon bars and collections.

In most cases, collectors add it to medal groups, museums use it in exhibits, and reenactors attach it to uniforms for authentic presentation. It is useful for anyone restoring Italian orders or assembling a historically accurate military surplus or police/duty display.

Care and notes

Simple care preserves appearance and fit. Follow these practical notes:

- Store flat in a dry place and avoid prolonged sunlight to prevent fading.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid solvents or abrasive cleaners.
- Check the selected portanastrino for correct fit before final mounting.
- Order the correct 37 mm variant; quantities are limited so verify options before checkout.

FAQ

Q: What size is the nastrino?

A: The nastrino is available only in the 37 mm format, which is the traditional regulation size for this item.

Q: Can I buy the nastrino with a portanastrino (ribbon bar)?

A: Yes. You can select a portanastrino option in the product choices to receive the ribbon already mounted on a compatible bar.

Q: What is the difference between the flat and Elite versions?

A: The flat version follows the standard regulatory profile. The Elite variant is slightly convex for a more pronounced, polished look.

Q: Is this nastrino suitable to wear on a uniform?

A: The item is made to official 37 mm dimensions and can be used on period uniforms or displays. It does not itself grant any official status or award.

Q: What is the historical significance of this nastrino?

A: It represents the second class (Grande Ufficiale) of the Order of the Crown of Italy and was awarded for notable merits as described in historical royal decree (20 February 1868, n. 4251).

Q: Is the nastrino in stock?

A: Stock is limited and demand is high among collectors. If you need a specific variant, we recommend checking availability and ordering promptly.

Tip: Choose the correct 37 mm variant (flat or Elite) and select a matching portanastrino if you plan to mount multiple ribbons. Browse related items in our military surplus and historical ribbons range to complete your display or restoration project.
