Product overview

The Distintivo Alpini Val Fella 8° Alpini is a pre-war enamelled metal badge for collectors and military history enthusiasts. It suits militaria collectors, reenactors, and anyone who displays military surplus, tactical memorabilia, or duty insignia.

Definition: a pre-war enamelled metal regimental badge representing the Val Fella battalion of the 8° Alpini.

Main features

Clear, durable construction and historically accurate symbols make this badge a sought-after item for display or collection.

- Material: enamelled metal, pre-war manufacture.
- Design: features an ice axe and a bayonet (rifle mod. 91) crossed over the Montasio massif.
- Inscription: regiment name "8° Alpini" above the Montasio.
- Motto: "Mai d'Aur" (Friulian for "Never retreat") engraved on the ice-axe handle.
- Size: 2.3 cm width x 4.5 cm height — compact for wear or display.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use it as a collectible badge, a display item in a militaria collection, or as part of historical uniforms and tactical memorabilia displays. It is primarily decorative and historical, not issued for active duty.

In most cases, collectors place the badge in a display case, on a shadowbox, or on a uniform panel for exhibitions. This piece is also useful for museums, military surplus dealers, and reenactment groups who value period-accurate insignia.

Care and notes

Handle and store the enamelled metal badge carefully to preserve the finish and inscription. Limited stock may apply; consider availability when ordering.

- Store in a dry place to avoid corrosion of the metal base.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners that can damage enamel.
- Keep away from strong chemicals and prolonged humidity.
- Note: this is a historical collectible (pre-war); condition may vary slightly by piece.

FAQ

Q: What are the badge dimensions?
