Product overview

The Soggolo Sostituto Commissario Coordinatore Polizia di Stato is a formal uniform accessory designed for serving members of the Polizia di Stato. It is a ribbon-style insignia worn at the temples to indicate rank and provide a polished, professional appearance.

Definition: a soggolo is a decorative rank ribbon used on the uniform for duty, ceremonial, and official police use. This item is reserved for active police personnel and for verified collectors under specific legal requirements.

Main features

Clean, durable construction with clear rank markings and an instantly recognisable design suitable for duty and formal occasions.

- Distinctive design: gold ribbon with a red-striated central band and a 3 mm horizontal line, edged in red around the perimeter.
- Rank markings: four rank stripes (galloncini) of 2 cm each, separated by five vertical red lines of 2 mm, applied on each side at temple height.
- High-quality materials: made to withstand regular wear while maintaining appearance.
- Restricted sale: reserved to serving Polizia di Stato personnel; purchase requires document verification.
- Collector provisions: collectors may buy only after submitting a licenza prefettizia ex art. 28 TULPS.
- Limited availability: high demand and controlled distribution mean stock may be limited.

How to use / When it’s useful

The soggolo is attached to the uniform at temple level as part of formal dress for duty, inspections, and official ceremonies. It reinforces rank identification while keeping a professional profile for police, tactical, or duty settings.

Quick answer: wear it on the uniform at the temples for formal duty and ceremonial use. In most cases, purchase and delivery depend on successful verification of service ID or specifying your Questura as the delivery address.

Care and notes

Keep the soggolo in good condition with simple care and follow purchase verification rules to avoid delays.

- Store in a dry place away from direct sunlight to preserve colours and fabric.
- Avoid abrasive contact to prevent fraying or damage to the gold and red detailing.
- Sale requires a copy of the service ID or delivery to the Questura where you serve; collectors must provide the licenza prefettizia ex art. 28 TULPS.
- Delivery times vary depending on document verification and chosen delivery location.
