Product overview

The Nastrino Commendatore Corona d'Italia is the ribbon bar for the Commander class (third class) of the Crown of Italy chivalric order, intended for collectors, museums, uniform suppliers, reenactors and military surplus or tactical stores. Definition: this nastrino represents the official ribbon used to denote the Commendatore rank of the Order.

Established by Royal Decree on 20 February 1868 (n. 4251), this ribbon is offered in two sizes (37 mm and 20 mm) and in regular or slightly domed "Elite" finish, with selectable rear fittings (clamp or screws). Availability is limited and demand is high among history and military collectors.

Main features

Clear, accurate reproduction with options for mounting and finish to fit display or uniform needs.

- Sizes: Available in 37 mm and 20 mm.
- Finish options: Regular or slightly domed "Elite" variant.
- Mounting choices: Can be supplied with a portanastrino using rear clamp fittings or screw fittings, selectable at purchase.
- Official reference: Part of the Order Cavalleresco (third class) as defined by the 1868 royal decree.
- Collector appeal: Designed for display, uniform presentation, and military surplus resale.
- Durability: Manufactured to maintain shape and appearance for display or light-duty use.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use this nastrino for uniform displays, multi-ribbon mounts, museum exhibits, or as part of a private collection. It fits standard portanastrini and can be mounted according to your chosen attachment type.

In most cases, this ribbon is used for historical display or collecting rather than day-to-day duty wear. If you plan to display it on an active uniform, follow current regulations for police, military or ceremonial dress in your country.

Care and notes

Keep the nastrino in good condition with basic care and the correct mounting choice.

- Store flat and dry to avoid creasing or damage to the ribbon.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or solvents.
- Choose the correct size (37 mm or 20 mm) and the appropriate portanastrino attachment when ordering.
- Observe local uniform and legal rules before wearing on active service uniforms or official duty garments.

FAQ

Q: What sizes are available for the nastrino?

A: The nastrino is offered in two sizes: 37 mm and 20 mm. Choose the size that matches your portanastrini or display needs.

Q: Can I select the type of mounting for the portanastrino?

A: Yes. You can choose between rear clamp fittings or screw fittings when selecting the portanastrino option at checkout.

Q: Is this nastrino an official recognition?

A: The ribbon represents the Commendatore class of the Crown of Italy Order, as established by the 1868 royal decree. It is a historical insignia used to indicate that rank.

Q: What are the available finish variants?

A: The nastrino is available in the standard flat finish or a slightly domed "Elite" finish. Select the finish that best suits your display or collection.

Q: How do I buy the nastrino?

A: Add the desired size, finish and mounting options to your cart and complete the purchase on the site. Remember to confirm the portanastrino attachment type before checkout.

Q: Is this nastrino suitable for military surplus and tactical stores?

A: Yes. The ribbon is commonly stocked by military surplus, tactical and uniform suppliers for collectors, displays and historical presentations. Verify local rules before selling or using on active duty uniforms.

Tip: Choose the correct size and mounting option for your portanastrini, and consider the Elite finish if you want a slightly domed appearance. Browse related ribbons and portanastrini to complete your display or collection.
