- Folding flaps: side flaps fold for easy attachment or customization.
- Compact size: 38 mm length x 7 mm height, easy to store or display.
- Historical reference: linked to the 2015 weather events in Emilia Romagna (DPCM 13/03/2018).
- Collectible appeal: limited availability increases interest for collectors.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use this fascetta as a collectible, a small display item, or a simple ID/marker on tactical or duty equipment. Its folding flaps allow attachment to fabric or thin straps when needed.

In most cases, buyers display it with other military surplus or police memorabilia, add it to a personal collection, or use it to label gear for historical/commemorative purposes. The compact size makes it suitable for display cases or mounted plaques.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the bronzed finish looking its best and preserves the engraving.

- Wipe with a soft, dry or slightly damp cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners.
- Fold the side flaps gently to prevent bending or stress on the metal.
- Keep out of reach of small children due to small parts and choking risk.
- Stock is limited; to place an order, send a copy of the required attestation via the site "Contacts" function to speed processing.

FAQ

Q: What are the dimensions of the fascetta?

A: The band measures 38 mm in length and 7 mm in height. It is a compact item intended for display or light attachment.

Q: What material is it made from?

A: The fascetta is made of bronzed metal, chosen for durability and a refined appearance that suits collections and tactical displays.

Q: What does the "EMILIA ROMAGNA 2015" engraving mean?
