Product overview

The Fascetta Metallo FRIULI 2003 is a bronzed metal tag designed for collectors, veterans, emergency responders and anyone interested in military surplus, tactical or duty memorabilia. It serves as a commemorative accessory and can be kept with uniforms, gear, or in a display.

Definition: a small bronzed metal tag engraved "FOGGIA 2014" referring to the flood events in Friuli-Venezia Giulia (August 2003, DPCM 07/02/2008).

Main features

Compact, durable and historically significant, this fascetta combines simple design with practical attachment options for collectors and tactical enthusiasts.

- Material: bronzed metal for long-lasting appearance and strength.
- Commemorative engraving: marked "FOGGIA 2014" in reference to the August 2003 floods in Friuli-Venezia Giulia.
- Foldable side flaps: built-in flaps fold for easier attachment to fabric or display mounts.
- Compact size: 38 mm length x 7 mm height — easy to handle and store.
- Order requirement: purchase is processed upon receipt of the required attestation copy.
- Suitable for: collectors, tactical gear displays, police or duty memorabilia holders.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use the fascetta as a commemorative tag on a uniform, display board, or in a collector case. The foldable side flaps let you detach and attach it to fabric or mounting points without special tools.

In most cases, it is kept as a keepsake or used with military surplus and tactical equipment displays to mark historical events. It is not a functional tool or safety device — it is intended for display and remembrance.

Care and notes

Basic care will keep the bronzed finish looking its best and ensure the inscription remains legible.

- Wipe with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners.
- Keep dry and store in a cool place to prevent tarnishing over time.
- Handle the foldable flaps gently to avoid bending beyond their intended range.
- Order processing requires a copy of the attestation; prepare this document before purchase.

FAQ

Q: What are the dimensions of the fascetta?

A: The fascetta measures 38 mm in length and 7 mm in height. Its compact size makes it suitable for display or attachment to gear.

Q: What material is the fascetta made of?

A: It is made of bronzed metal, chosen for durability and a traditional appearance often seen in collectors' and military surplus items.

Q: How do I place an order?

A: To order, send a copy of the required attestation using the website’s Contact function as instructed by the seller. The order will be processed once the documentation is received.

Q: What does the "FOGGIA 2014" engraving signify?

A: The engraving references the flood events affecting Friuli-Venezia Giulia in August 2003 and is produced in accordance with DPCM 07/02/2008. It is intended as a commemorative marking.

Q: Does the fascetta have foldable side flaps?

A: Yes, it includes foldable side flaps for easier attachment to fabric or display mounts. Fold them carefully to maintain the piece’s condition.

Q: Is the Fascetta Metallo FRIULI 2003 available in large quantities?

A: Availability is limited and demand can be high. If you need one for a collection or display, it is advisable to order promptly while stock remains.

Tip: Check the dimensions before buying and choose the right item for your display or kit. Browse related tactical and military surplus items to complete your collection without rushing your choice.
