Product overview

The Nastrino Ufficiale Corona d'Italia is a collector-grade ribbon intended for collectors, reenactors, museums, and uniformed personnel who want an accurate representation of the order’s fifth class. It suits buyers of military surplus, tactical and police memorabilia, and historical accessories.

Definition: this item is the ribbon (nastrino) that represents the fifth class of the Order “Corona d'Italia,” established by royal decree on 20 February 1868. It is sold in a regulation 37 mm format for correct display and mounting.

Main features

Carefully produced to match standard dimensions, the ribbon is available in flat and a slightly domed “Elite” finish and can be mounted on single or multi-place metal ribbon bars.

- Regulation size: available in the standard 37 mm format.
- Two finishes: flat regulation format or slightly domed “Elite” variant.
- Ribbon bar options: compatible with single and multi-place metal ribbon mounts (portanastrini/ribbon bars).
- Quality materials: produced with durable, high-quality materials for lasting appearance.
- Collector appeal: limited availability increases demand among military surplus and history collectors.

How to use / When it’s useful

Attach the nastrino to a ribbon bar or single mount for display on uniforms, framed collections, or museum exhibits. It works well as an accurate visual representation of the order’s fifth class for display and educational purposes.

Quick answer: use it for display, uniform representation, or as a collectible item. In most cases, collectors mount the 37 mm ribbon on a metal ribbon bar (portanastrini) with two or more places to keep multiple ribbons orderly and professional-looking.

Care and notes

Simple care preserves the ribbon’s appearance and value. Store and handle it like other uniform insignia or military surplus items.

- Store flat in a dry place away from direct sunlight to avoid fading.
- Do not machine wash; spot clean carefully if required.
- Select the correct finish (flat or Elite) and the appropriate ribbon bar size when ordering.
- Availability is limited—consider ordering promptly if the item is needed for a collection or display.

FAQ

Q: What size is the Nastrino Ufficiale Corona d'Italia?

A: The ribbon is available in the regulation 37 mm format. This is the standard size for correct display on ribbon bars and uniform mounts.

Q: Are there different variants available?

A: Yes. You can choose the flat regulation format or the slightly domed “Elite” variant for a subtler, more refined look.

Q: Can I mount multiple ribbons together?

A: Yes. The ribbon is compatible with metal ribbon bars (portanastrini) designed for two or more places, allowing multiple ribbons to be joined on a single metal base.

Q: What materials are used?

A: The nastrino is made with durable, high-quality materials designed to keep a neat appearance over time. Specific material details are kept to standard collector-grade construction.

Q: How do I buy the ribbon?

A: The ribbon is sold online and can be added to your cart for checkout. Choose the desired finish and any ribbon bar options before completing your purchase.

Q: Is this the official state-issued decoration?

A: The product represents the ribbon for the fifth class of the Order “Corona d'Italia” as established by the 1868 royal decree. It is offered as a collector/display item in the stated format and size.

Tip: Choose the correct finish (flat or Elite) and the right ribbon bar size when ordering, and consider browsing related military surplus and tactical display items to complete a professional collection or uniform presentation.
