Product overview

The Patch "Ranger" of the 4° Reggimento Alpini Paracadutisti is a unit badge awarded to officers, non-commissioned officers, NCOs, and volunteer troops who have completed the unit's selective and training course. It is intended for serving Italian Army personnel and serves as a visible sign of qualification within the regiment.

Definition: a 7 cm x 7 cm official Ranger patch that identifies completion of an approximately two?year selection and training process. This tactical military patch is of interest to military surplus collectors and buyers of tactical or duty gear, although sale is restricted to verified Italian Army personnel.

Main features

Clear design and compact size make the patch suitable for uniform display while communicating unit identity and specialist qualification.

- Symbol of qualification: Awarded after roughly two years of selection and training.
- Distinctive design: Dark green background with laurel and oak branches, a dagger between open wings, and a five?pointed star.
- Italian identity: Tricolour scroll at the base with the word "RANGER".
- Size: 7 cm x 7 cm—visible but compact for uniform placement.
- Unit: 4° Reggimento Alpini Paracadutisti "Ranger".
- Appeal: Tactical/military patch useful for unit identification and collection within military surplus contexts.

How to use / When it’s useful

Wear the patch on a prominent position of the uniform to show affiliation and qualification; it is commonly displayed where unit badges are normally placed. Quick answer: wear it as the unit requires to show Ranger qualification.

The patch is most useful on service uniforms during duties, ceremonies, or while on operational assignment that permits insignia display. In most cases, purchase and possession are limited to verified Italian Army personnel, so availability is subject to identity verification.

Care and notes

Keep the patch clean and attached securely to maintain a professional uniform appearance; follow unit dress regulations for placement and care.

- Do not alter or reproduce official insignia without authorization.
- Sales restricted to Italian Army personnel only—verification required before shipment.
- To purchase, provide a copy of military ID or service attestation via the site contact function, or register the barracks address as the delivery location.
- Limited availability and high demand—orders may be subject to waiting times.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Patch 4° Reggimento Ranger Alpini?

A: Only serving personnel of the Italian Army can purchase this patch, subject to prior identity verification.

Q: What are the patch dimensions?

A: The patch measures 7 cm in length and 7 cm in height, suitable for clear display on the uniform.

Q: How do I prove my belonging to the Army?

A: Send a copy of your military ID or a service attestation via the site's contact function, or list your barracks as the delivery address during registration.

Q: Where should the patch be placed on the uniform?

A: It is normally placed on a prominent part of the uniform consistent with unit dress rules so the qualification is clearly visible.

Q: What symbols appear on the patch and what do they mean?

A: The patch shows laurel and oak branches (courage and strength), a dagger between open wings, a five?pointed star, and a tricolour scroll with "RANGER".

Q: What does the "Ranger" brevet represent?

A: The Ranger brevet denotes completion of a selective training path of about two years and signifies entry into the unit’s specialized mountain and airborne capabilities.

Tip: Choose the correct patch variant and confirm delivery to your official barracks address if required; check related tactical and military surplus items to complete your uniform while respecting the purchase restrictions for military personnel.
