How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use this medal as a commemorative piece for display, gifting, or addition to a police or military surplus collection. It is a tangible way to honor service during the pandemic.

In most cases, collectors purchase the Medaglia Covid-19 to add to a display case or to give as a commemorative gift to veterans, retired officers or family members. Departments and individuals may also acquire it to mark personal or local recognition of duty during emergency service.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the medal looking its best and preserves its finish for years.

- Store in a dry place away from direct sunlight to avoid tarnishing.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or chemical polishes that can damage plating.
- If intended as an official award, confirm issuance procedures with the Emilia Romagna administration or your department before presenting.
- Handle by the edges to reduce fingerprints on the finish.

FAQ

Q: Who can receive the Medaglia Covid-19 Polizia Locale Emilia Romagna?

A: The medal is intended to recognize Polizia Locale operators who served during the Covid-19 emergency in Emilia Romagna. It commemorates service and dedication in that period.

Q: What material is the medal made of?

A: The medal is made from brushed gold-plated brass, chosen for durability and a formal appearance appropriate for display and collection.

Q: What are the ribbon dimensions and colors?

A: The ribbon has a central green band 13 mm wide, two blue bands of 8 mm each, and two bordeaux bands of 4 mm at the edges. A small metal plate on the ribbon reads "COVID-19".
