Product overview

The Cappellino Ranger Verde Oliva is a visor cap designed for everyday wear, outdoor use and casual tactical-style looks. It suits anyone looking for a durable, adjustable hat that pairs well with military surplus, tactical or duty-inspired outfits.

Definition: The Cappellino Ranger Verde Oliva is a 100% polyester visor cap in olive tones with a rear metal-buckle adjustment for a one-size-fits-most fit.

Main features

Key features that make this cap practical and versatile:

- Material: 100% polyester for durability and easy care.
- Visor: Built-in visor for sun protection and a casual look.
- Adjustable fit: Rear metal buckle allows a secure, personalized fit.
- Color options: Olive green shades may vary from darker to lighter tones.
- Versatile use: Suitable for outdoor activities, sports, and casual or tactical-style wear.
- Limited availability: Produced in small quantities—stock may run out.

How to use / When it’s useful

Wear the cap with the visor facing forward for sun protection or tilt it slightly back for a more relaxed look. The metal-buckle adjustment lets you fine-tune the fit quickly and keeps the cap secure during active use.

Quick answer: Ideal for walks, outdoor work, sporting events, and casual everyday wear. In most cases, the one-size adjustable design fits a wide range of head sizes comfortably while maintaining a tactical or military-surplus aesthetic.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the cap looking good and preserves its shape.

- Machine wash cold on a gentle cycle or hand wash to protect the fabric.
- Do not bleach; reshape the visor and air dry to maintain form.
- Fasten the metal buckle before washing to avoid snagging.
- Note: Color shades may vary between batches.
- Note: Limited quantities available—check stock before ordering.

FAQ

Q: What material is the Cappellino Ranger Verde Oliva made of?

A: It is made of 100% polyester, chosen for its durability and easy maintenance for everyday and outdoor use.

Q: Is the cap adjustable?

A: Yes. The cap uses a rear metal buckle for a customizable, secure fit that adapts to different head sizes.

Q: What olive shades are available?

A: Shades of olive can vary from darker to lighter tones. Exact color may differ slightly between batches.

Q: Is this cap suitable for sports or outdoor activities?

A: Yes. The visor and adjustable fit make it suitable for light sports, walking, and general outdoor use.

Q: Is the Cappellino Ranger Verde Oliva available in limited quantities?

A: Yes. This model is produced in limited runs, so availability can be restricted—order soon if you need a specific shade.

Q: How should I clean and dry the cap?

A: Prefer gentle machine wash cold or hand wash. Do not bleach; reshape the visor and air dry to keep the cap in good condition.
