Product overview

Alamari Tuta OP Carabinieri are collar insignia designed for serving members of the Arma dei Carabinieri, intended for use on the Ordine Pubblico (O.P.) duty suit. These patches signal rank and authority while maintaining a standardized, professional look for police and tactical duty uniforms.

Definition: a pair of plastic-backed collar badges with velcro fastening, sized and detailed to match the Carabinieri O.P. uniform. Suitable for tactical, duty, and military-surplus use by authorized personnel.

Main features

These Alamari are built for repeated use and a consistent uniform appearance, with precise measurements and decorative details that match official styling.

- Material: durable plastic body with a rear velcro panel for secure attachment.
- Design: red background with a silver-thread galloon folded three times to form a 3.5 cm by 2 cm rectangle.
- Center detail: a fabric strip topped by a silver-colored five-point plastic star for clear identification.
- Fringe: silver canutiglia fringe on the rear edge, 1.2 cm long, for finished appearance.
- Size and pair: each badge (right and left) measures 2.5 cm wide by 5.5 cm long, sold as a matched pair.

How to use / When it’s useful

Attach each alamaro to the collar of the Tuta O.P. using the supplied velcro backing; the set includes one left and one right badge to ensure symmetry and a uniform look. Use them when on public-order duty, ceremonial tasks, or any situation requiring the official Carabinieri collar insignia.

Quick answer: they are for serving Arma dei Carabinieri personnel to wear on the Ordine Pubblico suit. In most cases, you will apply them directly to the collar velcro or have them fitted by your unit's uniform office for correct placement.

Care and notes

Keep the alamari clean and check velcro regularly to ensure a secure fit; these are low-maintenance but must be handled according to service rules.

- Store flat and away from heat to avoid plastic warping.
- Wipe clean with a damp cloth; avoid solvents or abrasive cleaners that could damage the finish.
- Sale restricted: available only to serving Arma dei Carabinieri personnel with required documentation (CMD copy or service attestation).
- Ensure correct placement and pairing to maintain uniform standards during duty or public-order operations.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Alamari Tuta OP Carabinieri?

A: Only serving members of the Arma dei Carabinieri are eligible to purchase these alamari. Eligibility is checked before order completion.

Q: What documents do I need to buy them?

A: You must provide a copy of the CMD or a service attestation that proves current service with the Arma dei Carabinieri. Orders without verification will not be processed.

Q: How do I send the required documentation?

A: Provide the documentation during account registration or submit it via the site contact channels as requested by the seller. Indicate your unit or delivery command if required for shipment.

Q: What are the exact dimensions of each alamaro?

A: Each badge measures 2.5 cm in width and 5.5 cm in length, including the red border. The interior galloon rectangle measures 3.5 cm by 2 cm.

Q: Are the alamari sold in pairs?

A: Yes, they are supplied as a matched pair—one for the right collar and one for the left—so the uniform remains symmetrical.

Q: What material are the alamari made from and how are they attached?

A: They are made from durable plastic with decorative silver-thread details and a plastic star, and they attach via a velcro panel on the rear for a secure and removable fit.

Tip: Choose the paired set and confirm delivery to your command if needed; check your documentation before ordering and browse related uniform accessories to complete your duty kit.
