Product overview

The Patch Araldico Aeronautica Militare is an embroidered heraldic patch for collectors, veterans, and anyone who wants to personalize jackets, backpacks, caps or tactical and duty gear. It represents four Italian Air Force squadrons recognized for their service in World War I.

Definition: a woven embroidered insignia depicting the historic symbols of four Aeronautica Militare squadriglie. This patch suits military surplus collectors, tactical kit users, and police duty uniforms looking for a historical detail.

Main features

Clear heritage design and quality workmanship make this patch a recognizable emblem of Italian aviation history.

- Heraldic embroidery: stitched on a blue background with detailed symbols.
- Four squadrons depicted: 10th Farman (Pegasus with torch), 91ª Squadriglia Caccia (rampant Griffin), 10th Caproni (four-leaf clover), and 87ª "La Serenissima" (Lion of Venice).
- Size: 5.5 cm W x 8 cm H.
- Quality finishing: produced with attention to detail to honor historical symbolism.
- Versatile use: suitable for uniforms, jackets, backpacks and caps.
- Collectible item: limited availability increases its appeal for collectors.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Apply the patch to outerwear or gear where it is visible to show affiliation, pride or historical interest. Use it on jackets, rucksacks, caps or canvas gear commonly found in tactical and military surplus collections.

In most cases, place the patch on a flat area of the garment or accessory so the design reads clearly; choose an attachment method that suits the material of your item. This patch works well for display on duty bags, field jackets, or civilian heritage jackets.

Care and notes

Proper care preserves the embroidery and colors; follow general care for embroidered patches and the garment it is applied to.

- Check garment care instructions before attaching or cleaning the patch.
- Spot clean the patch when possible; avoid harsh chemicals or prolonged heat exposure.
- Decide on a permanent or removable attachment method before fitting (sewing, Velcro, or other methods depend on your item).
- Stock is limited—consider ordering promptly if you need the patch for a project or collection.
