Product overview

The Nastrino CRI Bronzo Servizi Territoriali is a historic service ribbon for collectors, military history enthusiasts, reenactors and former service members. It represents the Bronze Territorial Services award as issued by the CRI and is aimed at display on uniform ribbon bars or in collections.

Definition: this nastrino is a 37 mm service ribbon that was officially granted between 1917 and 1958. It is offered in the flat regulatory format and a slightly convex "Elite" variant, and can be supplied with different rear attachments.

Main features

Compact, regulation-size ribbon made for accurate historical display and personal collections.

- Regulation size: available only in the 37 mm standard width.
- Two finishes: flat regulatory format or slightly convex Elite variant for a refined look.
- Attachment options: rear clamp (clip) or screw-mounted fittings selectable in the product menu.
- Multi-ribbon packaging: compatible with multi-place metal ribbon bars for wearing several ribbons together.
- Historical issue period: concession from 1917 to 1958; no longer issued today.
- Collectible item: limited availability makes it sought by collectors of military surplus and duty/police memorabilia.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use this nastrino for authentic uniform displays, historical collections, or museum exhibits. Choose the mounting style (clip or screws) in the dropdown to match your ribbon bar or display backing.

In most cases, the flat format matches regulation displays, while the Elite variant suits presentation mounts or collectors seeking a slightly raised profile. Select multi-ribbon metal bases if you plan to group several ribbons on one mount.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the ribbon in display condition; handle gently and store away from moisture and direct sunlight.

- Do not assume current official authorization—the ribbon was granted only until 1958.
- Choose the correct attachment option at purchase to avoid refitting later.
- Store wrapped or in a display case to protect the finish and fabric.
- Limited stock: availability can change, so check before finalizing large orders for collections.

FAQ

Q: What size is the nastrino?

A: The nastrino is supplied in the regulation 37 mm width only, matching historical specification for this ribbon.

Q: Which finish options are available?

A: There are two options: the flat regulatory format and a slightly convex Elite variant for a raised appearance.

Q: What attachment types can I choose?

A: You can select a rear clamp (morsetto/clip) or screw-mounted attachment in the product menu, depending on your ribbon bar or display method.

Q: Can I mount multiple ribbons together?

A: Yes, the nastrino can be fitted into multi-place metal ribbon bars designed to hold two or more ribbons on a single base.

Q: Is this ribbon still issued by the CRI?

A: No. The nastrino was granted between 1917 and 1958 and is not currently an active award.

Q: Who typically buys this item?

A: Buyers include military surplus collectors, history enthusiasts, reenactors, and personnel assembling historical duty or police displays.

Tip: Choose the correct variant (flat or Elite) and the proper attachment (clip or screws) before adding to cart, and consider browsing related ribbon bars and mounting accessories to complete your display.
