How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use this medal as a commemorative object to honor a victim of terrorism or to mark a public remembrance. It is suitable for presentation at memorials, display in a frame, or as part of a ceremonial uniform when appropriate.

In most cases, the official state honor (the formal award process) is handled separately by public authorities; this medal is offered as a high-quality commemorative item and can be customized with engraving. To request the official honor you must follow the formal application route through the prefecture or the Ministry of the Interior, with possible assistance from victims' associations.

Care and notes

Keep the medal in a dry, protected place and avoid abrasive cleaners; personalization is available on request. Note: purchasing this commemorative medal does not replace the formal state conferral process.

- Store in a soft case or display frame to prevent scratches.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid harsh chemicals.
- Personalization (name and date engraving) is available as an option.
- Buying the medal is for commemoration; official award is issued by state authorities through the proper legal procedure.

FAQ

Q: Who can request the Medaglia d'Oro alla Vittima di Terrorismo?

A: The formal request for the state honor can be made by injured persons or by relatives of deceased victims. Eligible individuals include civilians and members of law enforcement or other state bodies.

Q: What are the steps to request the official medal from authorities?

A: The application is submitted to the prefecture of the victim’s residence or to the Ministry of the Interior. The case undergoes an investigation and review by a consultative commission before a final decision.

Q: Can the medal be personalized?

A: Yes. The reverse can be engraved with the recipient’s name, location and date of the event. Personalization is an optional service when purchasing the commemorative medal.

Q: What are the medal’s material and dimensions?

A: The commemorative medal is made of gold-colored metal, with a diameter of 3.5 cm and a thickness of 3 mm. The front bears the Italian Republic emblem.

Q: Does buying this medal grant the official state award?

A: No. Purchasing the commemorative medal is separate from the official state conferral. The formal honor is granted by the President on proposal of the Ministry of the Interior following the official procedure.

Q: How can I get help with the official application process?

A: Victims' associations often assist with filing applications and following the procedure. For formal steps, contact the local prefecture or the Ministry of the Interior for guidance.

Tip: Choose the right personalization options (name and date) and ribbon variant if available, and consider browsing related commemorative medals and display cases to create a respectful presentation without replacing the formal state award.
