Product overview

The Olive Green Mesh Military Scarf from Tutto Militare is a lightweight, durable scarf designed for military personnel, tactical users, outdoor enthusiasts and duty use. It combines breathability and camouflage in a simple, multipurpose textile.

Definition: A 100% cotton, olive-green mesh scarf (190 x 90 cm) made for protection, camouflage and improvised uses in the field. This tactical scarf is suitable for military surplus kits, duty gear and outdoor activities.

Main features

Key specifications and practical benefits at a glance.

- Material: 100% cotton for comfort and breathability.
- Size: 190 x 90 cm — large enough for multiple uses.
- Mesh structure: Grid 0.4 x 0.22 cm for ventilation while maintaining coverage.
- Weight: 210 grams — lightweight and packable.
- Anti-fray edge: Perimeter stitching prevents unraveling with extended use.
- Versatile use: Designed for camouflage, face/neck protection and improvised field tasks.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the scarf as a face or neck covering, a camouflage layer, an improvised bandage, a gear cover or a lightweight carrying wrap. It works well for patrols, hiking, camping and any outdoor duty where breathability and concealment matter.

Quick answer: Use it for protection from sun, wind and dust, or to blend into woodland and natural terrain. In most cases, the scarf is practical for tactical, military surplus and outdoor roles where a breathable, easy-to-carry cover is required.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the cotton fabric breathable and the mesh intact for long-term use.

- Machine wash at low temperature to preserve the cotton quality.
- Avoid bleach and strong detergents that can weaken fibers.
- Reshape and air dry; avoid high-heat tumble drying when possible.
- Store dry and away from abrasive surfaces to prevent snags.

FAQ

Q: Is the scarf machine washable?

A: Yes. Wash in a washing machine at low temperature to maintain the cotton and mesh structure. Use a gentle cycle if available.

Q: Is it suitable for all seasons?

A: Yes. The mesh design and cotton material offer breathability in warm conditions while still providing protection from wind and dust in cooler weather.

Q: Are other colors available?

A: Currently this scarf is offered only in olive green to prioritize natural camouflage in woodland and outdoor environments.

Q: What are the exact dimensions and weight?

A: The scarf measures 190 x 90 cm and weighs 210 grams. The mesh grid measures 0.4 x 0.22 cm.

Q: How long is shipping?

A: Shipping times typically range from 3 to 5 business days, depending on your location and chosen delivery option.

Q: Can I return the scarf if I’m not satisfied?

A: Yes. Returns are accepted within 30 days if the item is in original condition. Check our returns policy for any specific requirements.
