Product overview

The Berretto da Generale di Brigata dell'Arma Carabinieri is a ceremonial general's cap made for serving officers of the Arma dei Carabinieri and for licensed collectors. It is a formal headpiece that denotes rank, command and tradition in the Italian military police.

Definition: This is the official Generale di Brigata cap, crafted with traditional materials and ornamentation for duty, parades and ceremonial use. Suitable for military, police and historical/tactical collectors.

Main features

Carefully made with classic Italian details, the cap combines durable materials and traditional embroidery to reflect the rank and prestige of a Generale di Brigata.

- Materials: cordellino nero (durable black cord material) for shape and longevity.
- Emblem: canutiglia argento embroidered on panno rosso (silver bullion on red cloth) centered on the cap.
- Band: black damask band with red piping that echoes Carabinieri colors.
- Trim: treccia argentata (silver braid) around the temples with galloncini argentati edged in black.
- Fit and finish: ergonomic, formal shape designed for ceremony, parade and official duty wear.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear this cap for formal military occasions, parades, official ceremonies and when rank must be clearly displayed. It complements full dress uniforms and serves as a visible symbol of authority.

In most cases, this cap is purchased by active Arma dei Carabinieri personnel or by collectors with the required prefectural license. To buy, register on Tutto Militare, submit proof of service or the military ID, and complete the order; production time is 3 days from payment.

Care and notes

Follow simple handling and storage advice to preserve the cap's appearance and metal embroidery. Note purchase restrictions below.

- Store dry and keep in a protective box to avoid crushing the shape and decorations.
- Have embroidered or delicate areas cleaned professionally or spot-clean carefully; avoid harsh scrubbing.
- Production lead time: 3 days from payment to dispatch.
- Purchase restrictions apply: reserved for Arma dei Carabinieri personnel and authorized collectors with the prefectoral license under art. 28 TULPS.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase the Berretto da Generale di Brigata?

A: Only serving personnel of the Arma dei Carabinieri and collectors who hold a valid prefectoral license (ex art. 28 TULPS) may purchase this cap.

Q: What documents are required to buy?

A: You must provide a copy of your military ID or a service attestation proving membership in the Arma dei Carabinieri. Collectors must submit the prefectoral license under art. 28 TULPS.

Q: How do I submit my documents?

A: After registering on Tutto Militare, upload the requested documents via the site's contact/verification form as part of the purchase process. Verification is required before order confirmation.

Q: How long does production and shipping take?

A: The cap requires a production time of 3 days from payment to ensure careful workmanship. Shipping time depends on the chosen delivery method and destination.

Q: How should I choose the correct size?

A: Measure head circumference with a tape measure just above the ears and across the forehead. Refer to the Tutto Militare size guide to match your measurement to the correct cap size.

Q: Is this cap suitable for international collectors or tactical display?

A: Yes, authorized collectors may acquire it if they hold the required license; the cap is intended for ceremonial, historical and display use rather than tactical field use.

Tip: Choose the correct size using the measurement guide and select the delivery address carefully (personal or command location). Also browse related ceremonial caps and uniform accessories to complete a matching parade or duty set.
