Product overview

The Knight's Set of the Order of St. Gregory the Great is a presentation set for recipients, collectors and ceremonial use, designed to reflect the order's history and values. It is intended for those who need an authentic-looking ceremonial cross with matching miniature, ribbon and presentation case.

Definition: A complete ceremonial set including a large enameled cross, a gala miniature, a 37 mm ribbon, a silk rosette and an elegant presentation case. This set suits collectors, ceremonial duty, military surplus displays and formal occasions.

Main features

High-quality materials and traditional symbolism are combined to present the insignia with dignity and protection.

- Presentation case: Elegant box lined in silk for safe storage and display.
- Large enameled metal cross: Polished finish with a laurel crown symbolizing glory and virtue.
- Gala miniature: Faithful reduced version of the cross with a 20 mm ribbon for formal wear.
- Silk rosette: Red-and-yellow colors that reflect the order's official palette.
- Ribbon: 37 mm wide, made from premium fabric to match official appearance.
- Craftsmanship: Attention to detail to reflect ceremonial and collector standards.

How to use / When it's useful

Quick answer: Wear the large cross for official ceremonies and the gala miniature for formal events; use the rosette for less formal lapel display. The case provides safe storage and attractive presentation.

In most cases, the large cross is reserved for ceremonies and official duty, while the miniature and rosette are suitable for receptions, formal dinners and collector displays. This set is also practical as a commemorative gift or for historical and military surplus collections.

Care and notes

Proper care keeps the set in display condition and preserves its finish and fabric.

- Store the set in the provided silk-lined case when not in use to prevent scratches and dust.
- Clean metal and enamel with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or soaking.
- Keep ribbons and rosette dry and away from prolonged sunlight to prevent fading.
- The set follows the order's official design and is not available for customization.

FAQ

Q: What components are included in the set?

A: The set includes a silk-lined presentation case, a large enameled cross, a gala miniature and a silk rosette. Each piece is designed to match the order's traditional appearance.

Q: What are the official colors of the Order of St. Gregory the Great?

A: The official colors are vibrant red and yellow, represented in the ribbon and the silk rosette. These colors reflect the order's historic palette.

Q: Can the large cross be worn daily?

A: The large cross is intended for official ceremonies and formal duty rather than daily wear. The gala miniature is more appropriate for regular formal events.

Q: How is the set packaged?

A: The set is supplied in an elegant, silk-lined presentation case designed to protect and display each component securely. The case is suitable for storage and gifting.

Q: Where can I buy this Knight's Set?

A: The set is available from Tutto Militare and is offered for collectors, ceremonial teams and those interested in military surplus and historical items. Check the seller's catalog for current availability.

Q: What does the laurel crown symbol mean?

A: The laurel crown represents glory and virtue, values associated with St. Gregory the Great and the traditions of the order. It highlights the symbolic meaning of the decoration.

Tip: Choose the right variant for your intended use—ceremonial cross for official duty, gala miniature for formal events—and browse related ceremonial and collector items to complete a respectful display without rushing your decision.
