Product overview

This is a metal beret badge (fregio da basco) for the 4° Reggimento Alpini Paracadutisti "Ranger", intended for serving military personnel and authorized collectors. It is a service and collector item that identifies membership and heritage for the Ranger regiment.

Definition: a 5.5 cm (width) x 4.5 cm (height) burnished silver metal beret badge featuring an eagle, parachute and the motto MAI STRACK. Ideal for uniforms, military duty berets and military surplus collections.

Main features

Durable, low-reflective metal insignia designed for practical wear on a service beret or for secure display by verified collectors.

- Material: Burnished silver-tone metal for durability.
- Dimensions: 5.5 cm wide × 4.5 cm high.
- Design: Eagle in flight clutching a cartouche with the motto MAI STRACK and a parachute motif behind.
- Finish: Brunished, low-glare surface suitable for tactical use.
- Fit: Sized to sit discreetly and correctly on a beret.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear this badge on the beret of serving members of the 4° Reggimento Alpini Paracadutisti "Ranger" or keep it as part of an authorized military collection. In most cases, the badge is applied to the beret as a visible regimental insignia or kept in a display case for collectors.

Follow unit dress rules when mounting the badge on a uniform beret. Purchase and possession are restricted: only verified military personnel or collectors with the required prefectural license (Art. 28 TULPS) may buy this item.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the badge presentable while preserving the burnished finish; handle and store under normal conditions for metal insignia.

- Wipe gently with a soft, dry or slightly damp cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or polishes that can alter the finish.
- The burnished, low-glare surface helps tactical use by reducing reflections.
- Sale is restricted: buyers must provide required documentation (military ID, CMD or service attestation, or prefectural license for collectors).
- Delivery address for serving personnel should match the military command indicated at registration.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the beret badge?

A: Only serving military personnel and authorized collectors may purchase this badge. Sales are restricted to those who can prove eligibility.

Q: What documents are required to buy?

A: Serving personnel must provide a copy of military ID, CMD or a service attestation. Collectors must provide a prefectural license (Art. 28 TULPS) for possession of military items.

Q: How do I submit the verification documents?

A: Documents should be submitted through the seller’s verification process or contact form during registration. Follow the site instructions for uploading identification files.

Q: Can I buy the badge without documentation?

A: No. Documentation is mandatory to comply with legal requirements and to ensure the badge is delivered only to eligible buyers.

Q: How long does document verification take?

A: Verification is typically completed within a few working hours, though processing time may vary depending on document clarity and volume of requests.

Q: Where will the badge be delivered?

A: Delivery can be to a private address or to the military command address provided at registration; collectors will receive items at the address given during purchase verification.

Tip: Choose the correct badge and verify your documentation before ordering. Also check related beret insignia, badges and accessories to complete your uniform or collection.
