How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: the badge is for wear by authorized personnel and for licensed collectors as a display or part of an official uniform. It confirms unit affiliation and is used where formal insignia are required.

In most cases, serving personnel must register and provide proof of service so the item can be delivered to their barracks; collectors must present the required prefectoral license. This badge is useful for duty use, ceremonial uniforms, and military surplus collections.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the badge in good condition and preserves its finish. Note the purchase restrictions and follow document requirements when ordering.

- Clean with a soft, dry or slightly damp cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners.
- Store dry and separate from rough items to prevent scratches.
- Purchase restricted: only authorized personnel or collectors with a prefectoral license (ex art. 28 TULPS) may buy.
- Delivery for serving personnel is made to the barracks listed at registration; collectors must provide the required license.
- Returns accepted only if the product is intact and in line with the seller’s return policy.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase this beret badge?

A: Only authorized military personnel or collectors holding a prefectoral license (ex art. 28 TULPS) may purchase the badge. The seller verifies eligibility before completing the order.

Q: What documents are required to buy?

A: Serving personnel must provide a copy of their service ID or an attestation of service. Collectors must present the prefectoral license as required by law.

Q: How do I submit the required documents?

A: Documents should be submitted through the seller’s official contact or registration process during the order. Verification is performed before shipment.

Q: How long does document verification take?

A: Verification is usually completed within a few working hours. The seller will confirm approval by email once documents are checked.

Q: What are the delivery times?

A: Shipping is arranged within 2 working days from order confirmation. For serving personnel, delivery is made to the indicated barracks.

Q: Is the badge a limited edition?

A: Availability is controlled and may vary, since this is an official insignia subject to periodic checks. Buyers should expect stock to be managed according to official rules.

Tip: Choose the correct badge and provide required documents at registration to avoid delays. Check related military, tactical, and military surplus items to complete your uniform or collection.
