Product overview

This berretto is a male Sovrintendente cap styled for the Polizia di Stato, designed for on-duty officers and verified collectors. It is a non-issue model that respects the institutional look and symbols associated with the Sovrintendente rank.

Definition: a formal duty cap that visually identifies the Sovrintendente rank and follows the Polizia di Stato's traditional design. Suitable for police duty, ceremonial use, and verified military surplus collectors.

Main features

Classic design and quality materials combine to offer a durable, representative duty cap that balances appearance and functionality.

- Front metal gilt badge featuring an upright eagle with outstretched wings and red enameled shield marked "RI" (Repubblica Italiana).
- Blue millerighe band around the cap base reflecting Polizia di Stato colors.
- Gilt soggolo with a central 5 mm black stripe — the identifying element for the Sovrintendente grade.
- Two gilt galloncini edged in black at temple level for rank distinction.
- Two gilt side buttons bearing the Polizia di Stato emblem that secure the soggolo and add a formal finish.
- External navy wool-like cloth, rigid internal structure, reinforced seams and tailored finishing for durability and shape retention.
