Product overview

The Metal Badge for the Brevetto Operatore Mine Risk of the Corpo Militare della Croce Rossa Italiana is a ceremonial and identifying badge for military personnel who hold the official Mine Risk Operator qualification. It is also available to authorised collectors with the required prefectural licence.

Definition: a metal service badge worn by certified Mine Risk Operators to signify specialised training in mine and explosive ordnance risk management. Ideal for tactical, military surplus, duty and police collections and uniform display.

Main features

Compact, regulation-style metal badge with enamel detailing and a secure rear clip for uniform or display use.

- Material: antiqued silver-finish metal with hot enamel (red cross on white field).
- Size: Width 45 mm — Height 35 mm.
- Fastening: rear metal clamp for stable attachment to jacket, uniform, beret or display mount.
- Design: stylised ordnance shield with white enamel disc and red cross, flanked by laurel fronds.
- Origin: made in Italy to rigorous quality standards; design conforms to models used by Corpo Militare CRI.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the badge on service uniforms, ceremonial dress, or as part of an authenticated collection. It signals certified expertise in mine risk education and explosive ordnance awareness and complements related insignia such as Mine Risk ribbons.

Quick answer: this badge is for certified Corpo Militare CRI operators or licensed collectors only. In most cases, purchase requires identity and qualification verification (military ID or service certificate for personnel; prefectural licence for collectors) before the sale is approved.

Care and notes

Store and handle the badge like other metal insignia to preserve finish and enamel detail.

- Keep in a protective case to avoid scratches and tarnish.
- Avoid strong chemicals or abrasive cleaners; clean gently with a soft cloth.
- No customisation is allowed for regulation badges.
- Sale is restricted: verification of entitlement is required before dispatch.

FAQ

Q: Can I buy this badge if I am not military?

A: No. The badge is restricted to Corpo Militare CRI personnel with the Mine Risk brevetto and to collectors holding a valid prefectural licence.

Q: What documents are required to buy?

A: Military buyers must provide a copy of their military ID or a service attestation. Collectors must supply the prefectural licence under the relevant regulation.

Q: How do you verify my documents and how long does it take?

A: Submitted documents are checked by staff and the account is authorised for purchase. Verification is typically completed within a few working hours after receipt.

Q: Is this badge consistent with the official model?

A: Yes. The badge follows the form and symbolism of the models used by the Corpo Militare CRI and is produced to match those standards.

Q: How is the badge shipped?

A: The badge is packed in protective packaging and sent by tracked shipment. Shipping cost is calculated at checkout with expedited options available.

Q: Can the badge be personalised or engraved?

A: No. As a regulation badge, customisation is not permitted to preserve its official appearance and meaning.
