Product overview

The Metal Rank Insignia for Vice Sovrintendente of the Polizia di Stato is a regulation enamelled badge designed for the blue shoulder straps with crimson edge on the ordinary uniform. It is intended for active Polizia di Stato personnel and authorised collectors who hold the required documentation.

Definition: a gold-coloured, enamelled metal badge that denotes the rank of Vice Sovrintendente and carries the official symbols of the Polizia di Stato. Sold by Tutto Militare in compliance with current rules and subject to restricted-sale verification.

Main features

Compact, regulation-sized metal insignia made to match official uniform specifications and built for daily duty use.

- Type: Enamelled metal rank badge
- Corps: Polizia di Stato
- Rank: Vice Sovrintendente
- Material & finish: Gold-coloured metal with glossy enamel, wear-resistant
- Dimensions: Height 7.5 cm, lower base 4 cm
- Design details: Spread eagle with central gothic RI shield, gold lozenge, five-towered mural crown
- Durability: High resistance to weathering and daily wear

How to use / When it's useful

Quick answer: apply the insignia to the ordinary uniform shoulder strap of the Polizia di Stato in the position required by uniform regulations. It provides immediate visual identification of rank during duty, patrols and official duties.

In most cases, this badge is used by operational staff who perform coordination, supervision and training tasks; it is also supplied to authorised collectors under the licence rules. Purchase and use are subject to verification of identity or licence documentation.

Care and notes

These enamelled metal ranks are low-maintenance but benefit from gentle care to preserve appearance and function.

- Clean with a soft microfiber cloth; avoid abrasive or acidic cleaners
- Store in a rigid case or padded box to prevent scratches and avoid humidity
- Do not rub vigorously on enamelled areas to prevent damage
- Fit carefully to official shoulder straps and check that the metal base does not harm the fabric
- Warning: sale is restricted — purchase requires identity verification or a valid prefectural licence for collectors

FAQ

Q: Who can buy these Vice Sovrintendente metal ranks?

A: Only active Polizia di Stato personnel, recently retired staff with documentation, and authorised collectors holding a valid prefectoral licence (ex art. 28 TULPS) can purchase them.

Q: Are these insignia made to official specifications?

A: Yes. The items are produced and inspected to match official form, symbols, materials and dimensions as required for the Polizia di Stato.

Q: What documents are required to order?

A: Service members must provide an ID card or a command attestation; collectors must present a current prefectoral licence. Documentation is uploaded during registration or via the contact form.

Q: How long does verification and account approval take?

A: Verification is normally completed within a few working hours; account activation and notification follow after approval. You can request updates by phone or messaging if needed.

Q: What warranty and guarantees are provided?

A: Commercial warranty covers manufacturing defects for 24 months. Damaged items on delivery are replaced free of charge and post-sale support is available by email.

Q: Can I order multiple pairs or delivery to a police station?

A: Yes. Small multiples for personal use are allowed within reasonable limits; for unit or depot orders contact customer service. Delivery can be sent to your service address or personal address as authorised.

Tip: Choose the correct variant and check required documentation before ordering; browse related rank insignia and uniform accessories to complete your kit while ensuring compliance with Polizia di Stato regulations.
