Product description:

Product overview

This is the official shoulder shield (scudetto omerale) of the Brigata Aeromobile "Friuli", made for serving Italian Army personnel and licensed collectors. It is a regulation shoulder patch intended for use on operational uniforms, tactical jackets and duty kit.

Definition: a small, high-definition rubberized emblem mounted on a khaki textile backing that identifies membership in the Brigata Aeromobile Friuli. Ideal for tactical, military surplus or duty use on permitted uniforms.

Main features

Clear, durable construction with measured dimensions and official design elements.

- Type: Institutional shoulder shield (scudetto omerale)
- Backing: Tough khaki cloth base with stitching suitable for uniform application
- Front: High-definition rubberized emblem with raised detail
- Design: Shield shape with reinforced edge; crenellated stone-colored castle and stylized grey/silver rotor on a light blue field
- Dimensions: Width 5.5 cm × Height 7 cm
- Durability: UV-resistant color and water-repellent finish for field use

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: attach to the designated shoulder area of the operational uniform, tactical jacket, or issue drop where authorized. The patch is built for daily wear in operational and training settings.

In most cases, this patch is used by active personnel during duty, by units for identification, or by collectors who hold the required prefectural license (ex art. 28 TULPS). It is not intended for unauthorized commemorative or public sale use.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the emblem clear and functional without affecting uniform compliance.

- Clean with a damp cloth and mild soap; avoid harsh chemicals that could affect the rubberized finish.
- Store flat and protected from prolonged direct sunlight despite UV-resistant properties.
- Sold exclusively to active Italian Army personnel or collectors with a valid prefectural license (ex art. 28 TULPS).
- Returns accepted for verified manufacturing defects after evaluation.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase this shoulder shield?

A: Only active personnel of the Italian Army or collectors holding a valid prefectural license ex art. 28 TULPS can buy this item. Sales are restricted and verified before purchase.

Q: What documentation is required for purchase?

A: Active personnel must provide a copy of their military ID or a signed service declaration. Collectors must supply the prefectural license required by law.

Q: How do I submit my verification documents?

A: Send the requested documents through the site contact form or the designated verification process on the seller's platform. Follow the seller’s instructions for secure upload.

Q: Can the patch be delivered to a barracks address?

A: Yes. Providing a barracks address can simplify verification and delivery for active personnel where permitted.

Q: How long does the account enablement or approval take?

A: Approval is typically completed within 24–48 hours after receipt of the required documents, depending on verification workload.

Q: Is this patch compliant with official uniform rules?

A: Yes. The patch is produced to respect the Italian Army’s uniform directives for identification emblems and to maintain appropriate technical-identification features.

Tip: Choose the correct variant and confirm delivery location before ordering; consider the embroidered option or multiple-unit discounts if you need patches for a whole unit or duty team and browse related tactical and military surplus items to complete your kit.
