- Use case: designed for exhibition, institutional gifting and regimental collections.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the crest as a focal piece in an office, command room, commemorative display or a collector’s wall. It highlights unit identity and local ties to Friuli and the Julia brigade tradition.

Quick answer: this crest is intended mainly for display and formal presentation rather than uniform wear. In most cases, buyers place it on a wall, in a trophy room or give it as a commemorative or institutional gift.

Care and notes

General care and mounting guidance to preserve finish and appearance:

- Avoid prolonged direct sunlight to protect colors and wood finish.
- Clean with a soft, dry cloth; do not use solvents, alcohol or abrasive cleaners.
- Use an appropriate wall anchor for the support type (drywall vs masonry) to hold the crest securely.
- Store flat or hung upright; avoid humid storage to prevent warping.

FAQ

Q: Is this crest an official product?

A: Yes. The crest includes an authenticity hologram and is sold as an authorized item representing the 8° Reggimento Alpini.

Q: What are the exact dimensions?

A: The crest measures approximately 17.5 cm wide by 25.5 cm high, sized for clear visibility on a wall or shelf.

Q: What material is the base made from?

A: The base is shaped wood, chosen to provide a sturdy display surface and a plaque-like appearance suitable for offices and memorial rooms.

Q: What imagery is shown in the central section?

A: The central scene shows snow-covered mountains against a blue sky, an ice axe (piccozza) and the regiment number 8, conveying alpine specialization and unit identity.

Q: Which battalion shields are included and in what order?

Q: Is this suitable as a gift or for institutional use?

A: Yes. Its size, presentation and hologram make it appropriate for institutional gifts, commemorations, and service recognition.

Tip: Choose the variant that best fits your display area and consider pairing the crest with related Alpini insignia or regimental items to create a coherent wall or shelf presentation.
