Product overview

The Nastrino Crociera Aerea del Decennale is a historic Italian ribbon for collectors, museums, reenactors and military surplus dealers. It marks the 1933 transatlantic flight organized by Italo Balbo during the first decennial of the Regia Aeronautica.

Definition: a fully red commemorative ribbon, offered in standard collector sizes and suitable for display or mounting on ribbon bars. Keywords: military, tactical, duty gear and military surplus collectors will find it appropriate for historical displays and uniform restoration.

Main features

Simple, accurate details for collectors and display use.

- Historic design: entirely red, commemorating the 1933 Crociera Aerea del Decennale by Italo Balbo.
- Available formats: flat regular and slightly convex "Elite" version.
- Mounting options: fits a single-place ribbon holder with clamp or screw attachment.
- Standard size: 37 mm width.
- Loose ribbon option: sold as loose ribbon with a minimum length of 50 cm for custom work.
- Limited availability: produced in restricted quantities and often in high demand among collectors.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the ribbon for uniform restorations, museum displays, or private collections. It mounts easily on single ribbon holders and can also be combined on multi-place metal ribbon bars for full presentation sets.

Quick answer: mount on a single-place holder with clamp or screws, or buy loose ribbon (min. 50 cm) for tailoring. In most cases, collectors prefer the 37 mm size for authentic display and compatibility with standard ribbon bars.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the ribbon presentable for display and long-term storage.

- Store flat in a dry, cool place to avoid creasing or color changes.
- Handle gently; avoid aggressive cleaning or machine washing that may damage the fabric.
- Confirm choice of flat or Elite (slightly convex) before ordering to match other ribbons.
- Note the limited stock; ordering promptly ensures availability for collections or duty displays.

FAQ

Q: What size is the ribbon?

A: The ribbon is supplied in the standard 37 mm width, suitable for most collector and display ribbon bars.

Q: Which formats are available?

A: Two formats are offered: the regular flat version and the slightly convex "Elite" version for a different presentation profile.

Q: How can I mount the ribbon?

A: It mounts on a single-place ribbon holder that uses either a clamp or screw attachment. It can also be arranged on multi-place metal ribbon bars for display.

Q: Can I buy loose ribbon for custom work?

A: Yes, loose ribbon is available with a minimum purchase length of 50 cm, suitable for tailoring or restoration projects.

Q: Is this ribbon a modern reproduction or an original?

A: The product description indicates a commemorative ribbon based on the 1933 event; check the item condition and description at checkout for reproduction or original status.

Q: Is the ribbon readily available?

A: Availability is limited and demand is high among collectors. If you need a specific format or length, order early to secure stock.

Tip: Choose the correct format (flat or Elite) and the 37 mm size for compatibility with standard ribbon bars; consider the loose ribbon option (min. 50 cm) if you need custom lengths. Browse related military surplus and display accessories to complete your presentation set.
