Product overview

The Nastrino Operazioni Soccorso Friuli 1976 2^ Assegnazione is a commemorative Italian military ribbon intended for collectors, military-history enthusiasts, uniform restorers and tactical/police displays. It reproduces the ribbon issued for rescue operations after the 1976 Friuli earthquake and is suited for military ribbon bars, collector mounts and military surplus displays.

Definition: a nastrino is a service ribbon that represents a specific operation or award. This ribbon was modified according to Foglio d'Ordine Ministero della Difesa-Esercito n. 7 del 15 giugno 1982. Stock is limited, and the ribbon is offered in both the regulation flat finish and a slightly domed "Elite" variant.

Main features

Clear, regulation-style options and mounting choices make this ribbon a practical addition for uniform restoration, museum displays or collections focused on tactical and military history.

- Regulation format: supplied in the standard flat style that matches 37 mm ribbon bars.
- Elite variant: slightly domed alternative for a refined appearance.
- Official modification: produced according to Foglio d'Ordine Ministero della Difesa-Esercito n. 7, 15 June 1982.
- Mounting options: selectable rear clamp (morsetto) or screw attachments for the portanastrino.
- Size: available only in 37 mm format.
- Loose ribbon option: can be purchased as a single loose medal ribbon for custom mounting.
- Limited availability: produced in small quantities for collectors and restoration projects.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this nastrino on a 37 mm ribbon bar, single-place mount or inside a display case to represent service in the Friuli 1976 rescue operations. It is useful for military surplus collections, tactical insignia displays and police/duty uniform restorations.

Quick answer: choose the flat regulation format for authentic uniform use or the Elite variant for a slightly more polished display. In most cases, select the rear clamp for removable mounting or the screw attachment for a more secure, permanent fit.

Care and notes

Basic care preserves appearance and fit; handle the ribbon gently and pick the correct attachment and size before ordering.

- Only available in 37 mm — it will not fit non-standard bars or mounts.
- Keep dry and clean with a soft, dry cloth; avoid strong solvents or abrasive cleaning.
- Choose clip (morsetto) or screw attachment at purchase to match your ribbon bar.
- Limited stock — allow for possible delays if you require multiple pieces for a multi-place portanastrino.

FAQ

Q: What is the difference between the regulation and Elite formats?

A: The regulation format is flat and corresponds to standard 37 mm ribbon bars. The Elite format is slightly domed for a different visual profile while keeping the same dimensions.

Q: How do I choose the correct portanastrino attachment?

A: Quick answer: select the rear clamp (morsetto) for removable use or the screw attachment for a secured installation. Match the choice to your existing ribbon bar style.

Q: Is this nastrino available in other sizes?

A: No, this ribbon is produced only in the 37 mm format, the standard size noted in the product description.

Q: Can I buy the ribbon as a loose ribbon for custom mounting?

A: Yes, the nastrino is available as a loose medal ribbon option for collectors or custom mounts; select the loose ribbon choice during purchase.

Q: What does the Foglio d'Ordine reference mean?

A: It indicates the ribbon's graphic modification follows the Ministry of Defence—Army order (Foglio d'Ordine n. 7, 15 June 1982), which defines the official design used here.

Q: How are ribbons supplied for two-or-more place ribbon bars?

A: In most cases, select the appropriate portanastrino option at purchase to receive correctly mounted ribbons. For specific multi-place arrangements, contact customer service for guidance before ordering.

Tip: Choose the flat or Elite variant and the correct attachment (clip or screw) before checkout, and consider the loose ribbon option if you plan custom mounting; browse related military ribbon and tactical insignia items to complete your display.
