Product overview

The Nastrino Operazioni in Albania Croce Rossa Italiana 1999 is a commemorative ribbon for Red Cross personnel who served during the Arcobaleno mission in Albania and Kosovo. It is intended for veterans, collectors, uniformed staff, and anyone documenting humanitarian service.

Definition: a 37 mm commemorative ribbon bar representing service with the Italian Red Cross during the 1999 Albania operations. This item suits military surplus collectors, tactical and duty uniform displays, and police or emergency service recognition.

Main features

Simple, regulation-sized ribbon with color and mounting options to match display or uniform needs.

- Distinctive design: white ribbon with two vertical red stripes at the ends, separated by a white stripe, reflecting Croce Rossa Italiana colors.
- Regulation size: standard 37 mm format to meet common uniform and display standards.
- Variants available: flat regulation style and a slightly domed "Elite" variant for a more refined look.
- Mounting choices: supplied on a ribbon bar with clamp or with screws; selectable in the product menu.
- Loose ribbon option: available as a loose ribbon for attaching to medals or custom mounts.
- Multi-place mounting: can be fitted on two- or multi-place ribbon bars to combine with other awards.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this ribbon on service or display ribbon bars, on dress uniforms, or in collector presentations to represent participation in the 1999 Albania/Kosovo humanitarian effort. Quick answer: attach it to a ribbon bar or use the loose ribbon on a medal mount.

This ribbon is useful for veterans confirming service, for formal uniform wear, and for historical or military surplus collections. In most cases, choose the flat regulation variant for uniform compliance and the Elite curved variant for presentation or collector displays.

Care and notes

Small, durable item that needs basic care to remain in good condition; choose mounting and variant that match your intended use.

- Store in a dry place away from direct sunlight to avoid fading.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid chemicals or abrasive cleaners.
- Select mounting option (clamp or screws) and flat vs Elite in the product menu before checkout.
- Ensure correct placement on uniforms according to applicable dress regulations.

FAQ

Q: What does this ribbon represent?

A: It recognizes service by the Italian Red Cross during the Arcobaleno mission in Albania and Kosovo in 1999. It symbolizes dedication and humanitarian work.

Q: What size is the ribbon?

A: The ribbon is the regulation 37 mm width commonly used for ribbon bars and medal mounts.

Q: Can I buy it as a loose ribbon for a medal?

A: Yes. A loose ribbon option is available and can be selected in the product options for use on medal mounts.

Q: What mounting options are offered?

A: You can choose a ribbon bar with a clamp or with screws. Multi-place bars are also available for displaying multiple ribbons together.

Q: Which variant should I choose for uniform wear?

A: For standard uniform use, the flat regulation variant is recommended. The Elite slightly domed variant is suited to display and collector presentation.

Q: Is this an official Croce Rossa item?

A: The ribbon reproduces the colors and style associated with the Croce Rossa Italiana's 1999 Albania operations. Check dress rules or unit guidance for official wear requirements.

Tip: When ordering, pick the mounting style and flat or Elite variant that fits your intended use and check related ribbon bars or display cases to complete your uniform or collection. Browse similar military surplus and tactical recognition items to match your set.
